Saigon is Expected To End Its Boycott

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon officials say they believe that Saigon, faced with the prospect of having to settle its political differences with the Viet Cong alone, will drop its boycott of the broadened Paris peace talks.

This prospect appeared implicit in Tuesday's declaration by Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford that the United States intends to go ahead with negotiations with Hanoi whether Saigon joins in or not.

Clifford said the United States and Hanoi could make big strides on the most immediate issue—military de-escalation, including steps toward withdrawal of troops. Pentagon officials said such an arrangement would leave Saigon to face the Viet Cong alone in the political struggle.

The view that South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu would end his boycott, was disputed in Paris and Saigon.

In Saigon, South Vietnamese Information Minister Ton That Thien said if there are to be peace talks, then all parties must agree to Thieu's formula calling for his government to head the anti-Communist negotiators while the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front is subordinate to the North Vietnamese on the other side of the table.

Thien also said unless his government participates in the negotiations, it won't recognize a cease-fire or anything else agreed on that affects its vital interests.

Pham Dang Lam, head of Saigon's observors in Paris, said he does not think his government will change its mind and join the talks under the four-party formula that would bring the Viet Cong to the bargaining table on Hanoi's side.

Although Pentagon authorities said Clifford spoke for himself, the defense chief generally reflects the views of President Johnson. He long has been one of Johnson's closest advisors on the war.

Clifford's words, delivered with considerable emotion, were calculated to impress on the Saigon government that the United States does not intend to let its objections stand in the way.

The effect of any U.S.-North Vietnamese talks in the new setting created by the bombing halt would be to split off military from political issues between Washington and Hanoi.

This would mean that haggling over a political settlement, including the status of the Viet Cong in any government of reconciliation, would be shunted into the background for the time being, pending any Saigon change of heart.

Clerical Mistake Is Seen

BULLETIN

The official tally of county votes in the Nov. 5 election has confirmed that the airport improvement bonds have passed by a vote of 6,104 to 2,917.

BY PETER F. DANIELS
Democrat-Capital Staff Writer

There was no voting irregularity in the recent general election in the first precinct of the second ward, or anywhere else in the city, according to Pettis County Clerk James Green.

Green's office was still tabulating votes cast in the first precinct of the second ward at press time Wednesday and Green said "it might be 2 o'clock before we have the totals because we want to be absolutely right this time."

Account For Error

What appeared at first to have been an actual voting irregularity was revealed Wednesday as a simple clerical error on the part of election judges in the precinct, Green said.

The request for a court order to examine the ballots was withdrawn by Green when it became apparent that the only thing involved was the clerical error.

Green added that the discrepancy was noted when the votes were unofficially totaled the first time. There were more votes shown on the airport issue than there were voters registered in the precinct.

That led to the natural suspicion that something was wrong, Green said. However, it could not be determined just what the problem was until final tabulations were begun.

The actual airport votes totaled 711, counting those cast for and against the issue. Registration in the precinct totals only 551. At the same time, Green said, it was noted in his office that not a single vote had been cast on the Johnson grass control proposition.

Total of Voters

The most important item over-looked when the report was made was the number of people who actually passed through the polling place.

Green said that the tally book received from the precinct showed 351 people cast their votes at Hubbard School.

The county clerk said the clerical error could be explained by the fact the three so-called "short ballots" presented to voters were so similar in appearance that they could have been placed in one stack by election judges and counted for one issue.

In other words, the judges might not have read the ballots themselves to see if they were airport, Johnson grass ballots or those for the proposed Pettis County jail.

The unofficial chart published in The Sedalia Democrat and Capital last week indicated that the total vote, for and against, on the airport issue came to 711. The total votes, including favorable and unfavorable, cast on the county jail issue however, came to only 210. None were shown for the Johnson grass ballot.

Assuming that all 351 voters who passed through Hubbard School voted on all three issues, the total number of votes reflected for the airport issue in that precinct would be sharply reduced.

Must Be Split

It would, in other words, mean taking votes which didn't belong to the airport issue away and placing them on the two other issues.

Consequently, the tabulation being made today will alter the

Waves Whipped Up

A giant wave, almost 30 feet high, slams against a sea wall at Ft. Hamilton, New York, as a severe northeaster continues to batter the Northeastern United States. Winds as high as 81 miles an hour have been clocked. At least eight storm-related deaths have been reported. (UPI)

Decision Is Faced By Bishops

WASHINGTON (AP) — A panel of Roman Catholic bishops worked today seeking common ground to avert a sharp split over whether Catholics can use contraceptives despite a Vatican ban.

The seven-man panel labored through the night until 4 a.m. without succeeding in shaping a statement that could encompass the divergent views within the church.

The National Conference of Catholic Bishops was expected to begin debate on the divisive issue late today or Thursday.

The special panel, continuing its efforts today, is revising a proposed pastoral letter to voice the bishops' views on Pope Paul VI's controversial encyclical continuing the church's ban on all artificial means of birth control.

Numerous written suggestions for changes were given to the panel after a first draft was handed out to the bishops Monday. The seven-man committee went into session Tuesday night and met for 10 straight hours without producing a statement for final presentation to the full conference.

The original approach reportedly was toward a liberal attitude which would allow married couples to practice birth control if they conscientiously felt it necessary, but one source said the draft would still brand contraception as a sin.

Farm Receipts Estimated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farmers' net income in the early months of 1969 is expected to sag a bit from current levels, but probably will be about the same as a year earlier, the Agriculture Department predicts.

More livestock and larger carryover of grain from crops being harvested are expected to put pressure on farm prices, department economists said in an income situation report Tuesday.

The report said farm income for 1968 is expected to be about $15 billion, compared with $14.2 billion last year. This is the projection announced late last month by Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman.

Farm marketings through September were estimated at $29.7 billion, up $550 million from the first three quarters of 1967. In addition, government payments to farmers during the nine-month period were higher —about $3 billion, or $525 million more than a year earlier.

Receipts from livestock sales through September were $18.6 billion, an increase of $500 million from last year, the report said. Cattle and calf marketings accounted for about $400 million of the boost and reflected four per cent higher prices from a year earlier.

Market receipts from hogs declined slightly, with lower prices offsetting larger sales for slaughter.

Milk prices paid to farmers averaged four per cent more than for the first nine months of 1967, resulting in an increase of $100 million in gross receipts despite a slight reduction in the milk output.

Poultry and egg receipts were up slightly from a year earlier, with broiler prices about six per cent higher and the egg price average around 2 per cent over 1967.

Crop receipts from January through September totaled $11.1 billion, about the same as for the 1967 period, the report said. Lower prices for food and livestock feed grains more than offset increased sales from bumper crops.

The economists said most of this year's gain in cash receipts is expected to occur in the last three months, including marketings for a much larger cotton crop and receipts from other fall production.

A realized net income of around $15 billion would be the fourth largest, exceeded by 1947, 1948 and 1966.

It also would mean an average income per farm of about $4,900, an increase of $375 from 1967 and exceeded only by the $5,000 in 1966, the report said.

On the other side of the ledger, farm production expenses this year may rise to around $36 billion, about $1.25 billion more than in 1967.

Practically all production items except feed and fertilizer are higher priced than in 1967, the report said.

Artillery Shelling Answered

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Army and Marine artillery fired into the demilitarized zone Tuesday for the second time in three days after North Vietnamese gunners were reported to have fired on a South Vietnamese post from inside the zone. Later the location of the guns was questioned.

A U.S. spokesman said 10 mortar rounds hit an artillery base of the South Vietnamese 1st Infantry Division four miles east of Con Thien, inflicting light casualties. A U.S. communique said a ground observer reported seeing the muzzle flashes of enemy guns "between 500 and 1,000 meters inside the southern edge of the demilitarized zone."

"U.S. Army and Marine artillery fires were directed into the enemy positions with unknown results," it said.

Later a U.S. Command spokesman said a report had been received that the enemy firing positions may have been just south of the DMZ. "The incident is being further investigated," he said.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported there were two attacks on the base, one at 6:30 a.m. Tuesday and the second at 1:30 p.m., and both came from south of the DMZ. A government spokesman said enemy gunners fired a total of 30 mortar rounds into the base from two firing positions, one 200 to 300 yards south of the DMZ and the other about 3,000 yards to the south.

Before President Johnson halted the bombing of North Vietnam on Nov. 1, he warned that productive peace talks could not be conducted "in an atmosphere where the cities are being shelled and the demilitarized zone is being abused."

Nine days after the bombing halt, on Sunday, North Vietnamese gunners in the DMZ shelled U.S. Marine positions just south of the buffer zone, killed four Leathernecks and wounded 41.

U.S. Defense Secretary Clark Clifford said Tuesday the shellings Sunday were considered "a matter of seriousness" by the U.S. government but that so far they did not constitute a pattern.

Other sources in Washington and Saigon said the shellings

New England Battered By Severe Northeaster

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A severe northeaster churned across New England today after battering the mid-Atlantic states with heavy snow, rain and near hurricane force winds in an icy foretaste of winter.

The blustering storm, New England's third northeaster in six days, roared toward Nova Scotia, leaving in its wake a path of death and destruction. Winds as high as 81 miles per hour were clocked atop New Hampshire's 6,288-foot Mt Washington.

At least eight storm-related deaths were reported in New England and several more fatalities were attributed to the weather further south.

Southern New England was drenched by wave after wave of gale-driven rain and as much as a foot of new snow fell in the north.

Gale driven seas crashing over a seawall caused damage at Kennebunk Beach, Maine. Breakers 20 to 30 feet high tossed boulders and other debris onto King's Highway and onto the lawns of summer cottages.

The winds also threatened the lives of thousands of small dovekies, a species of auk, which were blown ashore on Cape Cod. Naturalists said the birds live in salt water and can't survive ashore.

The cruise ship Oceanic encounted rough seas and high winds as it headed back to New York after a boiler room fire forced the captain to turn the Bahamas-bound vessel back. All 1,040 passengers were safe.

The storm, spawned in the Gulf of Mexico, roared up the coast from the Carolinas Monday night to lash the shore areas with wind and rain which turned to snow further inland.

Power lines were downed, commuters delayed, bridges closed, streets flooded, schools closed, ferries stranded, boats swamped, trees felled, windows shattered and umbrellas broken.

Hundreds of families in coastal homes in New Jersey, Long Island and Connecticut were temporarily evacuated as the storm's height Tuesday but most were able to return by night.

In eastern Tennessee two 19-year-old boys died of exposure after being lost for 30 hours while on a hunting trip near Great Smoky Mountain National Park. A third youth in the party managed to walk to safety.

Officials said the dead boys were a quarter mile from help when they collapsed in a meadow. John Cutshaw, the survivor, said rain and snow had made it almost impossible to see.

Snow accumulation of up to a foot were reported in the Tennessee Smokies and up to 15 inches in West Virginia's eastern mountains. There was 17 inches at State College, Pa., 14 inches in Flat Rock, N.C., and 13 inches in Frostburg, Md.

N. Korean Guerrillas In Attack

SEOUL (AP) — The South Korean government revealed today that a second band of North Korean guerrillas landed on South Korea's east coast two weeks ago, bringing the total number of invaders in the area to 60 this month, twice the number reported earlier.

The government says 28 members of the Communist force have been killed.

Defense Minister Yim Choong-Shik told a news conference one of the guerrilla bands landed near Ulchin, 130 miles southeast of Seoul, and the other group went ashore 35 miles north of Ulchin near the village of Smachok.

Yim said the Communists were attempting to launch a guerrilla war in South Korea. They killed five South Korean soldiers and four civilians, and wounded seven soldiers and two civilians.

The defense minister said most of the South Korean casualties occurred during the invaders' brief occupation of Ulchin before a force of police, paratroopers and marines was deployed Nov. 3 to seek out the guerrillas.

The guerrillas fled into the mountains, and the government force is on their trail.

Yim said the double landing was the largest infiltration of Communist agents since the 1953 Korean armistice. He said it apparently was aimed at establishing key guerrilla bases on the east coast. He said 26 submachine guns and nearly 15,000 rounds of ammunition were among a truckload of supplies captured from the guerrillas.

The only other similar invasion took place last January when a band of 31 commandos infiltrated overland with orders to kill President Chung Hee Park in Seoul. They didn't get to the president and most of them were killed.

White House Staff Will See Changes

NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Richard M. Nixon plans a thorough overhaul of the White House staff and will abolish such time-honored posts as press secretary and appointments secretary, aides announced today.

Word of the "restructuring" of the White House inner circle was dislosed by H. R. "Bob" Haldeman, a 42-year-old Los Angeles advertising executive who was named today as one of Nixon's White House assistants.

Haldeman said the White House hierarchy in the Nixon administration probably will include no more than three or four assistants at the highest level. He said these appointees would act more or less as chiefs of staff to the president.

On the next rung down the ladder, there will be a number of special assistants who will handle such matters as press relations and presidential appointments.

A vice president of J. Walter Thompson Co., Haldeman will involve himself primarily with general administrative matters, including management of the White House staff. He will have supervision over presidential appointments—in other words the daily schedule—but the detail work will be carried out by a subordinate.

Seek to Prevent Anti-Soviet Acts

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's Communist leaders worked desperately today to keep young demonstrators off the streets while they wage a power struggle behind closed doors.

The leaders used a combination of threats and pleas in an attempt to head off students' and workers' plans for demonstrations against any more concessions to the Soviet occupiers.

Party chief Alexander Dubcek met with student leaders and warned them not to demonstrate next Sunday. He told them force would be used to stop them if they marched.

Dubcek's reform leadership faces a crucial power struggle with old guard Communists at a meeting beginning Thursday of the 160-member party central committee. The Dubcek group fears that more demonstration will result in Soviet intervention to return the old guard to power.

The 21-member party Presidium issued a statement condemning those who "organized" demonstrations Oct. 28 and Nov. 7.

Ham on Rye With Heroin His Specialty

CHICAGO (AP)—A counter man at a Near North Side restaurant was slated to appear in narcotics court today charged with serving up heroin stuffed sandwiches to customers who knew the code words.

Carlos Figera-Diaz, 21, of Chicago was arrested by police Tuesday night after a narcotics addict reportedly told detectives Diaz was slipping aluminum foil packages of the drug into certain "sandwiches".

Police said under the system used by Diaz, a narcotics addict would get varying amounts of heroin depending upon what kind of sandwich he ordered.

Prices varied from $20 to $60 depending on the type of "sandwich" ordered and police estimated Diaz did $2,000 worth of business a day.

Police found heroin valued at $5,000 hidden behind a false ceiling in the restaurant.

Ex-Golden Glover Charged With Murder

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—A first-degree murder charge was filed Tuesday against 1958 Midwest Golden Gloves feather weight division champion William L. (Boots) Washington, 28, of Omaha.

Washington was the fourth man charged in connection with the death Sept. 21 of Keith N. Pfenning, 27, a Milwaukee, Wis., railroad man.

An initial charge of assault with intent to rob was dismissed against Washington and he was ordered held without bond.

Housing Meeting Will Be Thursday

A previously postponed meeting between the Sedalia City Council and the Public Housing Authority will be held Thursday night. The meeting will be in the mayor's office beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Present at the meeting will be a representative from the Department of Community Affairs, Jefferson City, who will explain all aspects of the public housing programs and answer any questions from members of the Council or Housing Authority.

Bothwell School Property Sold By Board For $7,300

The Bothwell School property was sold to George Rothganger, Route 4, for $7,300, the highest bid of six opened at the Sedalia school board meeting Tuesday night.

In the event Rothganger's bid is proven unacceptable for some reason in the future, the property will be sold to the second highest bidder whose bid was opened at the meeting.

The board accepted the highest bid for the property presented to them by 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, as their advertised contract stated. However, after taking a look at a bid which was not presented to the board on time, through no fault of the board or the bidder, it was concluded that the Sedalia school system lost $1,276 on the transaction.

Most of the bidders on the property were present at the meeting and when David Sneeden, 1608 East Tenth, questioned the board as to why his bid had not been read, the matter was looked into. It was later learned that his bid had not been received by the board. Upon further investigation it was found that Sneeden's bid of $8,576, this figure was later revealed to all the board members, which was mailed at 3 p.m. Nov. 7 by Sneeden's wife as registered mail at the Sedalia post office, had never left the post office.

Only one bid was received by the board for a slide projector for the school system. Lehmer Studio's bid of $187.27 for a slide projector, slide tray and carrying case was accepted.

The board chose among 43 bids for the lowest and-or best bids on dictation equipment, 12 typewriters, a mimeograph machine, an electric spirit duplicator, a proportional spacing typewriter, an electric nonprinting calculator and an overhead projector for the business education classes at Smith-Cotton High School. Mrs. Irma Keyes, head of the department, was consulted by the board for her opinion on the items purchased, which totaled $8,194.70.

On Nov. 14 some U.S. Treasury notes held by the school system will mature and the board approved the reinvestment of the $200,000 from the Teachers Fund.

Due to the wage and hour law, as it applies to the secretaries, custodian, maintenance men and cooks of the Sedalia Public School System, it was decided by the board to decrease the present 5½-day work week to five days, eliminating work on Saturday mornings. This will go into effect in the near future.

The board approved payment of bills amounting to $45,620 35.

Soviet Spaceship Approaching Moon

MOSCOW (AP) — An unmanned Soviet spaceship apparently was nearing the moon today while Soviet space officials maintained silence about the flight and its mission.

The spacecraft, Zond 6, was expected to reach the vicinity of the moon tonight or Thursday morning, barring mishap.

It was launched in the Soviet Union Sunday "to conduct scientific explorations along the route of the flight and in near-lunar space" and to test its equipment, a brief announcement said Monday. It gave no further details.

Following usual Soviet secrecy on progress of Soviet space shots until they are proved successful, officials have made no further announcement on its flight.

Western analysts say the success of an earlier Zond and a recent manned earth orbital flight have now put the Soviets in a position, if they want, to challenge the U.S. effort to send the first men around the moon.

Although Soviet scientists have not said whether they will try this, information gathered from the latest Zond could be vital for any such attempt to beat Apollo 8 to the vicinity of the moon next month.

The Soviet capacity for this type of flight was proved last September, Western scientists say, when Zond 5 achieved the first unmanned flight around the moon and safe return to earth. It was recovered in the Indian Ocean.

Zond 5 did not complete a full orbit of the moon, but simply made a wide curve around it and headed back for earth.

The current probe, Zond 6, may attempt the difficult rocket-firing maneuver needed to put it into one or more complete orbits of the moon, then blast out of that orbit for the return trip to earth.

Add New Theme To Their Song

SWANQUARTER, N.C. (AP) — Negro teen-agers who have been boycotting classes for six weeks have added the chant, "We Want to be Arrested!" to their protest of a Hyde County school integration plan.

An effort to provoke mass arrests Tuesday resulted in the booking of 47 teen-agers on charges of obstructing traffic.

Later, other demonstrators regrouped at the county courthouse at dusk to shout, "We'll be back tomorrow!"

The North Carolina highway patrol boosted its force from 10 to 20 after a demonstration Monday during which police used tear gas to disperse Negro teen-agers from the school superintendent's office in the courthouse.

A 17-year-old girl who fell from a second-story office of the courthouse during Monday's demonstration remained hospitalized with a pelvic injury.

No smoke bombs or tear gas were used by officers during Tuesday's demonstration.

Of those arrested, 10 girls were released on their cognizance for court appearances Dec. 11. The 37 others, including boys and girls, were held under $25 bond each.

"We're going to fill that jail," said James Topping, a field worker for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, in discussing plans to provoke the arrests.

"They can't arrest everybody in Hyde County."

Topping was among leaders of the demonstrations but he was not among those who blocked roadways. He said Negroes would continue the protests "just as long as it takes to get what we want."

What they want, Topping said, is for the county to abandon its federally approved integration plan, which calls for phasing out Hyde's two all-Negro schools and integrating all students into a previously all-white school. The three schools are the only ones in the county and each operates grade one through 12. The first step in the three-year integration plan—integration of grades 1-3—was taken this year.

"They should continue to operate all three schools and put white students into what had been the black schools," Topping said.

About 800 of the county's 850 school age Negro children started a boycott of classes in September to protest the desegregation plan. The county's total school-age population is about 1,400.

Halley's Comet will make its next appearance in 1986.

Party Labels Appear A Bit Inappropriate

NEW YORK (AP) — Based on performance rather than membership, the tags on the political parties today may be as inappropriate as spinach labels on cans of corn.

This may be temporary, but it will take a couple of years to prove it.

Ingredients of the Republicans, according to the stereotype, include a big slice of business interest. The Democrats, based on popular attitudes, seem to be a stew of smaller groups and individuals.

But in recent years the businessman, the big one especially, has fared better under the Democrats than under the Republicans.

Despite business complacency during the Dwight D. Eisenhower years, the most recent Republican administration, the economy was marked by only a slow increase in profits, a low growth rate and much inflation.

Under John F. Kennedy and into the first part of the Johnson administration, despite much business criticism, the nation had little inflation. And throughout both administrations the growth rate was strong and corporate profits good.

These events might represent only an accident of history, but they could also have caused some businessmen to ponder over their traditional and ideological allegiance to Republicanism.

Hubert H. Humphrey had considerable business support in his presidential effort, and it seemed most noticeable in the campaign's final days. Traditional thinking would have assumed this support belonged to Richard M. Nixon.

In the stock market also there was little enthusiasm evident the day after Nixon's victory. Prices declined, in fact, although it was explained by analysts that they had risen earlier in expectation of the news. Wall Street places its bets on the future rather than the present or past.

The merging of Republican-Democrat attitudes regarding the operation of the economy into a great consensus is going to help none in applying the old labels. In basic economic philosophy the differences now are of method rather than goal.

Both parties are committed to full employment and economic expansion, a convergence that political scientists sometimes consider one of the biggest changes in political philosphy in many years.

As recently as the Eisenhower years, for example, it was considered acceptable to risk unemployment as high as 6 per cent in an effort to hold down inflation. Both Nixon and the Democrats now consider 4 per cent the maximum

Youngster Given His Choice, School Or Jail for 20 Years

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A Midwest City teen-ager charged with auto theft was given a choice Tuesday by Dist. Judge Carmon C. Harris—go to prison for up to 20 years or attend church and school regularly.

The long-haired youth, who said he just didn't think when a companion suggested they steal and strip the parts from a car, was ordered to appear again before Harris Nov. 7, 1970—or earlier if he violates the church-school attendance order.

The judge actually delayed sentencing of the 17-year-old youth for two years, saying if the boy stayed out of trouble that long, the car theft charge would be dismised.

The judge told the youngster: "If you want to go the penitentiary, you can . . . Good luck to you."

Counterfeit Ring Operates Within Prison

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A counterfeiting ring has been discovered inside the state penitentiary at McAlester for the second time in about two years.

This time it was just an attempt — Secret Service agents seized negatives and printing plates for $20 bills, and said they apparently got the equipment before any bogus money was printed.

Pat Steele, Secret Service Chief in Oklahoma, said a search of the prison printing plant Sunday and Monday turned up the equipment.

"Some inmates are suspects, but no arrests were made," Steele said. "There was nothing to indicate any prison employes were involved in any way."

In fact, Steele credited prison employes with reporting their suspicions that such an operation was under way.

Arts Council Ticket Sales Are Stressed

A final effort for season ticket sales before the appearance of the Conservatory Jazz Sextet on Saturday was urged at a meeting of the Sedalia Council on the Arts Monday night.

The Jazz Sextet, the first attraction of the Council's 1968-69 season, will give a concert at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at Smith-Cotton auditorium.

Mrs. Dorothy Hopkins, president, reported that a reception will be held in the Smith-Cotton cafeteria immediately following the concert.

It was announced that season tickets as well as tickets for the jazz concert will be on sale at the door Saturday night.

YOU MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS
AND NOT KNOW IT

Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms...ugly parasites that medical experts say infest 1 out of every 3 persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do...and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then — Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly, easily. Ask your pharmacist.

Don't take chances with dangerous, highly contagious Pin-Worms which infect entire families. Get genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . small, easy-to-take tablets . . . special doses for children and adults.

Seek New Homes For 200 Families

DETROIT (AP) — Operation M day is gathering steam in Detroit.

The "M" stands for move and the goal is to find suburban housing for 200 black families within a year.

Seeking to break down suburban barriers between Negro families and available housing, an alliance was formed between black real estate brokers and the Northwest Community Organization, which is financed by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit.

Supported by Michigan's open housing law, which becomes effective Friday.

Injured As Building Falls

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Four persons were injured Tuesday night when a two-story abandoned building collapsed on Kansas City's Near East Side.

Those injured, two of them children, were sitting in a parked car when debris rained on the vehicle.

They were identified as Mrs. Charlotte Johnson, 32; Mrs. Wilma Baliard, 50; Spencer Jones, 12, and Homer Green, 13, all of Kansas City. The two women were reported in good condition at a hospital; the conditions of the children at another hospital were not immediately available.

Harold Powers, a witness, said he heard a loud explosion and saw the north wall of the building, facing the street, collapse. "I heard several people scream and saw the people in the car try to get out," he said, "but they were pinned."

Beauty Plan Dropped

NEW YORK (AP) — The city has dropped a plan to beautify with ornamental fountains and reflecting pools a proposed 22-acre Hudson River sewage plant. A city official said the money could be spent for something more useful.

Seeks Smiles For Corey's funeral

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — "Nothing connected with Wendell Corey could be sad, even his death. He would hate to think he caused any sadness in the world. So smile with me when we think of him today."

Actor Kirk Douglas told that to a churchful of mourners at Corey's funeral Tuesday at First Presbyterian church. Corey, 54, whose acting career spanned 30 years, died Friday of a liver ailment.

Corey was a former president of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Science and in 1965 was elected to the Santa Monica City Council.

John G. Crawford

John G. "Jack" Crawford, 67, prominent Sedalia businessman, died Tuesday night at his home, 1615 West 10th Street.

He was born in Sedalia, the son of the late Grant and Alice Walmsley Crawford. His father for many years was president of the Crawford Loan and Abstract Co.

After graduation from the University of Missouri, Mr. Crawford worked with his father for several years. During World War II he served in the Pentagon in Washington as an Army officer. For several years he was secretary- manager of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce.

After the war Mr. Crawford started the Crawford Insurance Agency.

Mr. Crawford was a past president of the Sedalia Kiwanis Club, holding the post in 1955. He was a member and former vestryman of Calvary Episcopal Church.

He is survived by his wife of the home.

The body is at the McLaughlin Funeral Chapel. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Mrs. Lillie M. Bruns

Mrs. Lillie M. Bruns, 69, 1002 West 16th Street, died at 4 a.m. Wednesday at Bothwell Hospital.

She was born in Cole Camp, June 23, 1899, the daughter of Christ and Elizabeth Schumann Tonjes. She was married in 1919 to Julius A. Bruns.

Mrs. Bruns was reared and educated in Cole Camp. She was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church, Sedalia.

Surviving her besides her husband are two daughters, Mrs. E. B. (Virginia) Beyer, 650 East 15th; Mrs. Hillard (Dorothy) Wilckens, Cole Camp; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the McLaughlin Funeral Chapel with the Rev. Paul C. Doering, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, officiating.

Burial will be in Memorial Park Cemetery, Cole Camp.

Two Missourians Killed in Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department listed two Missourians Tuesday as casualties in Vietnam.

Army Sgt. Latney D. Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Ferguson Sr., Rt. 1, of Bois D'Arc, has been killed in action.

Army Spec. 4 James E. Richardson, husband of Mrs. Connie J. Richardson, Houston, was changed from the list of missing to killed in action.

total votes for all three issues, at least in that one precinct.

It wasn't known at Democrat press time whether this would mean success or failure for the airport issue since no one had determined at the time just how many ballots had been accidentally miscounted for the airport.

Green emphasized that the effort being made by his office today was aimed at making sure the totals were correct before they were presented for certification.

"Of all the elections I have worked as county clerk," Green said, "this has been the hardest. We've had trouble ever since the ballots were first presented for certification in Jefferson City. I hope we'll be through with it soon."

Disarmament Debate Is Stalemated

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly's annual disarmament debate appeared today to be stalemated from the start as Soviet-American nuclear talks awaited the change in U.S. presidents and a calmer atmosphere abroad.

Delegates felt that not much could be accomplished toward disarmament in view of the uncertain status of the Vietnam peace talks in Paris, the impending changeover in Washington and indications of an arms buildup among NATO members alarmed by the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia.

The Soviet Union made plain it holds virtually no hope of talks with the United States at this stage. Speaking Tuesday at the opening of the arms debate in the assembly's main political committee, Soviet Ambassador Jacob Malik made a perfunctory bid for opening negotiations between his government and Washington. Then he proposed that the assembly send the entire arms question back to the 17-nation disarmament committee in Geneva.

Estimate On Crop Production

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government estimates of 1968 crop production have declined slightly, but record output still is expected.

The Agriculture Department's all-crop index was reported Tuesday at a record 120 per cent of its 1957-59 average, down one point from the October estimate but three more than the previous high in 1967.

Production estimates were down for corn, rice, sorghum grain, cotton, peanuts, tobacco, pears, grapes, cranberries and pecans, but were higher for soybeans, sugar beets, potatoes, sweet potatoes, dry beans and apples.

The November report did not include revised estimates for crops already harvested such as wheat, oats, barley and rye.

Corn production this year was estimated at 4.4 billion bushels, down about 147 million bushels from the October estimate and 6 per cent less than the record 4.7 billion produced in 1967.

Sorghum grain was sliced from the 777 million bushels estimated in October to 755 million bushels.

This indicates a total output this year of livestock grains—corn, sorghum grain, oats and barley — of about 171 million tons, down 4 million from the October estimate and 3 per cent less than last year's record.

The estimated yield an acre and production, respectively, of important crops by major producing states included:

Corn for Grain

Iowa 93 bushels an acre and production 905,727,000 bushels;s Illinois 91 and 933,660,000; Nebraska 70 and 303,100,000; Kansas 76 and 82,992,000; Oklahoma 60 and 2,700,000; Colorado 85 and 21,335,000.

Soybeans for Beans

Illinois 32 and 205,312,000; Missouri 28 and 100,548,000; Nebraska 23 and 19,067,000; Kansas 25 and 22,700,000; Arkansas 21.5 and 84,904,000.

Sorghum Grain

Missouri 66 bushels an acre and production 16,104,000 bushels; Nebraska 58 and 106,604,000; Kansas 48 and 166,800,000; Oklahoma 42 and 28,518,000.

Sugarbeets

Nebraska 17 and 1,224,000; Kansas 16 and 624,000; Colorado 16 and 2,704,000.

Tobacco

Missouri 2,450 and 5,145,000.

Artillery

appeared to be provocations to test or possibly humiliate Washington.

Military spokesmen also reported rocket, mortar and recoilless rifle attacks on four American bases in South Vietnam's Central Highlands and on two provincial capitals to the east and west of Saigon.

Ground action was light. One of the shellings, against a U.S. 4th Infantry Division patrol base in the highlands six miles from the Cambodian border, was followed by a ground attack by an enemy force of unknown size hurling hand grenades and firing small arms. U.S. headquarters said three American infantrymen were killed and 21 wounded in the ground attack. Three Communist soldiers broke through the U.S. lines but were gunned down, a spokesman said.

A South Vietnamese spokesman said two children were killed and 35 civilians wounded in the shellings of the two provincial capitals. One policeman also was killed and five policemen and three South Vietnamese army soldiers wounded.

Meanwhile, five U.S. Navy Swift boats attacked a Viet Cong stronghold in the Bo De-Cua Lon river system at the southern tip of Vietnam.

Garden Club No. 4 Holds Its Meeting

Sedalia Garden Club No. 4, met Friday, Nov. 8, at the home of Mrs. O. P. Wilcox, 2503 Highland. Mrs. R. C. Smallwood and Mrs. R. L. Weinrich assisted in serving a dessert course to 20 members and two guests, Mrs. W. E. Bruce and Mrs. Ernest Stevens.

Mrs. Roy Kirchhofer presided over the meeting.

Mrs. Walter Banning, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Ernest Stevens as guest speaker. Mrs. Stevens used the topic of the month, "Thankful for Many Mums" and gave an interesting talk on the care and planting of mums.

Mrs. R. J. Hausam gave a beautiful memorial service to the Mrs. Roy Lierman, who for many years was member of the club.

The exhibit award, "Autumn Splendor" went to Mrs. Walter Banning. The horticulture awards, "Mums," were given to Mrs. Roy Duncan, first, Mrs. R. L. Weinrich, second and Mrs. Banning third.

The December meeting will be a turkey dinner at the home of Mrs. R. J. Hausam, Route 5.

Area Fires

The Pettis County Fire Department was called to the Mary Keller residence in Southern Hills at about 7:20 p.m. Tuesday.

A flue had reportedly burnt out. No damage resulted.

Accidents

One person was killed and three injured in a three-vehicle accident at 3:35 p.m. Tuesday 1.1 miles east of Route N on Highway 52 in Morgan County.

Dead is Mrs. Celia Mary Silvey, 65, wife of Lester Silvey, 67, Stover, the driver of a westbound 1957 Ford pickup truck.

Injured were Lester, Bilbert Silvey, 4, grandson of Lester Silvey, and Billy Fields, 24, Stover, driver of a westbound 1956 Buick. Gilbert Silvey was taken to the Stover Clinic, treated for minor injuries and released.

Lester Silvey was taken to Bothwell Hospital, where he was admitted.

According to the Highway Patrol Silvey made a left turn into a 1968 White tractor-trailer unit driven east on 52 by Harry Schenewark, 57, Jefferson City. Silvey's pickup then spun around into Fields' westbound auto, which had come to a complete stop, and finally came to rest in the south ditch of the roadway. The tractor-trailer unit and the car remained on the roadway.

Mrs. Silvey was thrown from the pickup truck on impact and she was pronounced dead at the scene. The body was taken to the Kidwell Funeral Home, Versailles.

Damage to the tractor-trailer unit was estimated at $2,500; $500 to the pickup and $150 to the Buick.

Cpl. Meyer and Trooper Lawson of the Missouri State Highway Patrol investigated the accident.

Say Vietnam Peace Talks Must Begin Now

PARIS (AP) — The Viet Cong's National Liberation Front said today the Vietnam peace talks must begin without delay regardless of whether the Saigon government sends a delegation.

Duong Diinh Thao, No. two member of the NLF team, told a news conference that it makes no difference whether Saigon is represented. He said the NLF is "fully competent to discuss all problems concerning South Vietnam," whereas the Saigon government is merely an American creation.

Thao reiterated that the NLF is ready to take part in peace talks with the three other delegations—the United States, North Vietnam, and the South Vietnamese government. But he added:

"If Saigon does not send a delegation, then the three parties must meet without delay to find a solution on the basis of the program put forward by the NLF."

Thao declined to answer when asked whether the NLF has a time limit beyond which it will not wait for the conference to open.

He also refused to comment on U.S. Defense Secretary Clark Clifford's declaration Tuesday that the United States intends to go ahead with negotiations with Hanoi if Saigon won't join in.

Submits Low Bid For Two Trucks

The Twelve Mile Special Road District accepted a low bid by Mike O'Connor Chevrolet agency for two Chevrolet pick-up trucks at a meeting Tuesday.

The bid was for $8,500. Other bids received on the two trucks were Bill Greer Motors, Fords, $9,846.78, and Leftwich Implement Co., International trucks, $10,531.42.

Adults Graduate

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — J.K. East, director of South Carolina adult education, says one of every seven high school diplomas awarded in the state in the first 10 months of 1968 went to an adult. He said that despite educational advances, South Carolina still has an estimated 230,000 illiterate adults in a population of about 2.5 million.

Leo Lewis Reaches Teens With Humor, Seriousness

Preceding his talk with an outstanding performance as a comedian, Leo Lewis reached the teenagers who were special guests at Optimist Club Tuesday noon at State Fair Restaurant, both with his humor and serious talk. A Sedalia mail carrier, one who has received publicity because a dog belonging to someone on his route follows him on his rounds every day, Lewis has a rare gift for imitating television personalities. His story of "Rindecilla," a mixed up version of "Cinderilla" kept his audience laughing.

The meeting was one of the observances of "Youth Appreciation Week," sponsored by the Optimist Club and going from his clowning into his talk he told the youngsters that success is something to think about. It just isn't material things. If someone offered $1,440 to spend in a day, and the same amount each day thereafter, with none of the money not spent to keep over, he said, one would try to spend it all to the best advantage, buying things he wanted, then making trips, giving to those in need, sharing.

Every day, Lewis pointed out, has 1,440 minutes and if they aren't spent that day they will be lost. They can be lived adventurously. Attitude, he said, is very important. Each day offers opportunity to meet new people, do new things, dream new dreams.

One of the greatest teachers of all times he commented, said there are eyes that do not see and ears that do not hear. One should be certain, Lewis stressed, to see and to hear things about him not to ruin the day. Life, he said, is what one makes of it. Tomorrow holds opportunities, new beauties, new satisfaction.

The meeting was presided over by the Rev. Charles Hendrickson, president, with invocation given by the Rev. Marvin Nobles. Lewis Taylor was program chairman.

Guests introduced were: Charlie Hassen, guest of David Hieronymus; Jim Atkinson, guest of Emmett Hood, and J. W. Watts, guest of Ab Ball. There were four guests from the Sunrise Optimist Club, Wes Raines, president, Gene Cook, the Rev. Marvin Nobles and Nelson Nix.

"Youth Appreciation Week" was explained by Hendrickson who called on the principals of the two high schools to introduce the class presidents and council presidents.

Sees No Parallel

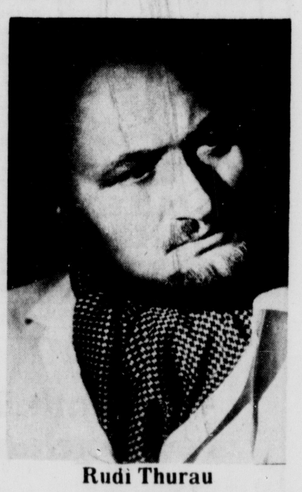

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Retired U.S. Supreme Court Associate Justice Charles E. Whittaker said Monday he cannot draw parallels between urban poverty and civil disobedience.

He said "the problems of the congrested city and the poor people are one thing, "and the maintenance of order is another . . ."

Whittaker addressed a meeting of the National Institute of Municipal Law Officers.

"It is too much to believe that we must have and tolerate crime and lawlessness and disturbances in the streets until the inner city is made what we want it to be," he said. "There is only one way to make people obey the law. And that is to make sure that violation is not profitable or gainful, but painful."

Traveler Will Narrate Amazon Adventure Film

Rudi Thurau

Rudi Thurau, a native of Hamburg, Germany, who now resides in Hollywood, California, will personally show and narrate his fiml, "Amazon Adventure—Peru", on Thursday evening, 8 o'clock, November 14, in the Smith-Cotton High School Auditorium. This is the second of the travelogue series sponsored by the Rotary Club of Sedalia.

Thurau has traveled throughout the world since the war years by motor scooter, by bicycle and by boat in his endeavor to spread a little better understanding among the peoples of the world. He has been a member of the Speaker's Committee for the People to People Foundation and has given lectures before libraries, universities, museums, schools and various social groups about his travels, thus helping to create goodwill between natives of the various countries he has visited. His knowledge of music an singing in eleven languages creates a feeling of fellowship among those with whom he comes in contact.

The story of his epic trips have appeared in Saturday Evening Post and Argosy and in various magazines and newspapers throughout the world. Critics agree that his raw contact with awesome nature and fearsome adventure produces a narration that sparkles as one of the most unusual adventure-photographer productions today.

His subject film covers an 1800 mile trip down the Amazon River from Pucallpa to Iquitos, Peru, which he made with a carefree American individualist and a thrifty Scotsman on their own open air raft powered by their motor scooter. The trip took seven months and covered miles and miles of jungle where strange animals and beautiful birds abound. They visited Indian villages and experienced many narrow escapes.

Admission is by season ticket, or single admission tickets may be purchased at the door on Thursday night.

Down He Went

With tempers a bit short on this stormy, wind-swept street in New York, the pedestrian at left finds himself in an unusual position — prone — on 42nd Street and Lexington Ave. He got that way after taking exception to a chauffeur's driving ability. The driver got out of his car, flattened the pedestrian and continued on his way. The storm continued unabated. (UPI)

Newspapers Honored By a Wire Service

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — Thirty-eight member newspapers of The Associated Press were honored here today by The Associated Press Managing Editors Association for outstanding contributions of news and pictures to the AP news report.

Citations have been awarded to the winners, describing their exceptional service to AP and other members of the news cooperative. Their names were announced at the annual APME convention which continues through Friday at the Sheraton-Oklahoma Hotel.

Some of the recipients were cited for going out of their way to provide AP with news or pictures, or both, on major breaking news stories in their areas. These included racial disorders, plane crashes, hurricanes, tornadoes, a major bridge collapse, a mine tragedy and others. In some cases the members gave stories or pictures to AP before they could use them in their own editions.

Some of the newspapers provided enterprise or feature stories for AP's state or national wires, which required days of research and writing by their reporters.

Still others were cited for their continuing daily cooperation with AP on large and small stories.

Citations were signed by David N. Schutz of The Tribune, Redwood City, Calif., APME president, and Burton H. Blazar of the Elmira Star-Gazette, chairman of the APME Member Citations Committee.

Recipients of the awards are:

Definition of Continental Shelf Sought

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — How deep is deep?

This is far from a semantic quibble among U.N. diplomats these days. It is a question involving potentially billions of dollars.

Envoys from all around the world generously agreed here that no country could claim the ocean floor, that it is "the common heritage of all mankind"—except where it might mean losing money.

The riches in question are the minerals and oil buried in the continental shelf, an undersea plain which borders nearly every continent before the continental slope plunges away into the ocean depths.

It varies tremendously in width and is hard to define. Every country with a seacoast has its own ideas.

Nations smelling—or already exploiting—undersea minerals off their coasts want a definition of continental shelf that gives them more area.

Poor and landlocked countries, with no shelf they are able to exploit themselves, want a definition that makes the shelf smaller.

Someday all the ocean floor will be within reach of man's technology for mining and oil drilling. Right now the easiest-to-reach minerals are naturally where the ocean is shallowest—the continental shelf.

So diplomats in the General Assembly's political committee debated for days how deep is deep—that is, where does the continental shelf leave off and the deep ocean floor begin? The former belongs to the adjacent country, the latter to all mankind.

Prospects for a speedy settlement and definition are not good. The nations of the world haven't even been able to agree on the width of their territorial seas. The United States, for example, claims out only to three miles—old cannonball distance—while the Soviet Union says everything out to 12 miles is its.

Here are some of the methods suggested for delimiting the continental shelf:

1. Arbitrary Depth—Calling everything up to a certain depth the continental shelf. A conference in Geneva in 1958 suggested 200 meters or 656 feet as the limit. Now that techniques for undersea drilling are improving, and thus able to work deeper, countries want it to go more than that.

2. Average Width—Using an arbitrary depth, say 200 meters, measure the shelf around all the continents and call the average the continental shelf. Countries that might get shortchanged don't like this method.

3. Extend Coastal Waters—Expand the territorial sea greatly and call the shelf everything under that. But countries haven't been able to agree on their present coastal waters and it is unlkely they could settle on a common new distance, which might be so big it would interfere with shipping and fishing.

4. Middle Line—Allow a contry to extend its claim out until it collides with another country's, then split it down the middle. This could quickly lead individual nations to claim the whole ocean bottom, exactly what the committee has vowed to prevent.

5. Geological—New ocean floor studies may lead to a scientific definition of just what the continental shelf is. This could take years and the world is waiting for guidelines to use now.

Oilmen are already drilling in 200 meters of ocean and expect to work in 500 meters or 1,640 feet in three to five years and 2,000 meters of briny—more than a mile—in 10 years.

Gold, manganese, cobalt, copper, iron, nickel, zinc and phosphorites have been found on the ocean floor. They are much more expensive to mine there than on dry land now but someday, perhaps not far away, it'll be worth it.

Who owns all this?

International law experts advance two Latin formulas, res nullius and res communis, a thing nobody owns and a thing everybody owns.

Delegates here unanimously agree to keep away from the first. If nobody owns it then it's up for grabs and could lead to a "worldwide gold rush under the oceans," as U.S. Ambassador J. R. Wiggins put it.

If it is owned by mankind in common, who has rights to exploit it and how much profit can they keep?

The new committee gets to work on these and other problems under principles laid down by the political committee. These call for undersea exploitation "for the benefit of all mankind, taking into account the special needs and interests of the developing countries."

Netherlands representative H. F. Eschauzier proposed that the United Nations license countries, which in turn would license firms, for undersea mining, with a percentage of the profits to the United Nations. This would go to a fund for developing countries.

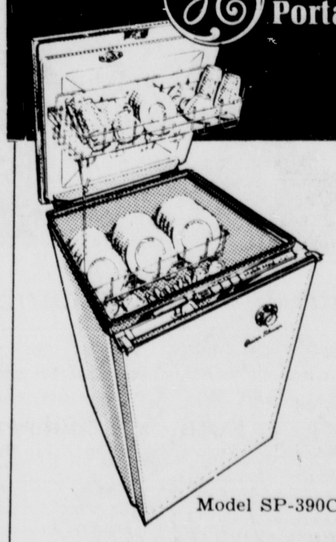

Lesser-developed countries are in general favor of such a scheme, since their technology might leave them out of such advanced projects as seabed oil drilling.

Thus man's plunge into the sea, like his thrust into space, offers either a new arena for national conflict or a tantalizing possibility of unity for the good of mankind.

Wesley United Women Hold Call-to-Prayer

The WSCS of the Wesley United Methodist Church held their Call to Prayer and Self-Denial Service in conjunction with the November meeting. Mrs. George Lovercamp led the service.

"An Introduction to Our Overseas and Urban Work," was the topic used by Mrs. Hugh Janes, Mrs. T. A. Huffine, Mrs. Brooke Wade and Mrs. Nina Sparks as they told of the work being done in the fields of agriculture, health, industry and education in India, Korea and the United States.

Mrs. Roy L. Brown, president, was in charge of the business session and reported briefly on the WSCS district meeting held at Camdenton. She informed the group that all women who belonged to the Woman's Society were now considered members of the WSCS, though ideally each woman should sign the Membership Roll open until December.

Mrs. Sparks stated that after Jan. 1, subscribers to the former, "Methodist Woman" would be receiving copies of the new magazine "Response."

The preaching mission was announced for Nov. 17-20 with Dr. Monk Bryan of the Missouri United Methodist Church of Columbia, the guest speaker. Other announcements included the Open House Tea, the afternoon of Nov. 24.

Mrs. Clarence Belden led the memorial service for Mrs. B. H. Russell and Mrs. E. B. McNeill. She ended with the poem, "As They Tarry There."

Dr. Thomas Hall offered the closing prayer.

Mrs. Mabel Miller and committee women from Circle 5 were in charge of the luncheon.

Price-Niermeyer Are Wed In Late Afternoon Service

TIPTON — Burning tapers and an arrangement of white gladioli, pompons and Jade foliage formed the background for the late October wedding of Miss Ethel Kay Price and William Irl Niermeyer.

The Rev. John Potter, Versailles, performed the 3 p.m. double-ring ceremony at the First Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Price of Tipton and Niermeyer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Niermeyer, Syracuse.

Mrs. Bill Dawson, organist, played traditional wedding selections preceding the ceremony. She accompanied Miss Vicki Dueber as she sang "Because" and "One Hand, One Heart" and Bill Dawson as he sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor length cage gown of peau de soie. The bodice was styled with yoke and sleeves of Venise lace in daisy design. Appliques and seed pearls accented the skirt front and encircled the hem that swept into a wide chapel length train. Her veil of hand rolled silk illusion was secured to a bandeau of Venise lace flowers and leaves and she carried a classic cascade of yellow pompons and salad leaves centered with a white cattelya orchid.

Serving as her sister's maid of honor was Miss Jackie Price. She wore a floor length, skimmer style gown of russet organizine with ivory lace banding the neckline and sleeves. The back panel on the dress featured a lace Dior bow. A colonial bouquet of yellow and bronze pompons entwined with brown ribbons formed her bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joe Brant and Mrs Norma Keirsey, sisters of the bride, and Miss Mary Beth Wirths. Serving as a junior bridesmaid was Miss Vicki Brant, niece of the bride. Their attire was identical to the maid of honor. Miss Valerie Brant, the bride's niece, was flower girl.

Mrs. Wm. Niermeyer

Master Jay Scott Niermeyer, brother of the groom, was ring bearer.

Serving as candlelighters were Misses Debbie and Kim Brant, nieces of the bride. Their dresses and headpiece were identical to the other attendants and they wore wrist corsages of yellow and bronze pompons.

The groom chose his brother, Jim Niermeyer, as best man. Groomsmen were Keith Klass, Ralph Knipp, Charles Brant and Mike Niermeyer, junior groomsmen.

Ushers were Keith Keirsey, Jimmy Kline, Jerry Mortenson and Carl Hibdon.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose an avocado double knit suit with russet and brown accessories. The groom's mother wore a gold double knit ensemble with matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of green cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Myrta Hotsenpiller, grandmother of the groom, was dressed in a shade of avodaco green and wore a corsage of yellow and bronze pompons.

A reception was held in the church annex following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a lace table cloth over russet and lighted by an arrangement of silver candelabras with white gladioli, pompons and greenery. The three tiered wedding cake was deocrated with yellow-orange tipped roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Serving at the reception were Miss Sue Stephens, Miss Jane Schroeder and Mrs. Susan Oswald. The guest book was attended by Mrs. Nancy Niermeyer, sister-in-law of the groom. Presiding at the gift table were Miss Schroeder and Mrs. Oswald. They all wore corsages of yellow and bronze pompons. Distributing the wedding programs and rice bags was Master Tom Brant, nephew of the bride.

For a wedding trip to Florida the bride chose an olive striped double knit dress with matching accessories. A white orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet completed her outfit.

The couple will reside in Jefferson City.

HINTS ON MARBLE

Keep your marble lovely by keeping it clean and properly protected. Wash marble with clean cloths and fresh, lukewarm water. Twice a year, wash it with a mild detergent as an additional safeguard to remove residue dirt. Then protect it with a marble polish. This will help combat staining and discolorization by absorbing into its pores a discoloring material.

Marble reacts to certain acids and alkalis present in many foods and liquids. These can actually etch the marble. Alcohol and fruit juices will mar the surface. If any liquid is spilled on marble, it should be washed with clean water as soon as possible.

Extension Notes

Camp Branch Homemakers met Nov. 6 at the farm home of Mrs. Glenn Banner. The meeting was opened with members singing "America" in unison. Mrs. Paul Nietzert read the devotional, Psalm 21, and roll call was answered with "something about Argentina."

Club members, under the direction of Mrs. Neitzert, presented a skit, "Running a Happy Family," and Mrs. Buell presented a demonstration on Christmas decorations.

The Nov. 20 workday will be held at the hom of rs. Hoard.

The Bryson Extension Club met Nov. 7 at the home of Mrs. Milford Lewis with Mrs. Richard Rice, hostess. Mrs. Floyd Egbert led the group singing and Mrs. Dan Gordon offered the devotional.

"Pennies for Friendship" were collected by Mrs. Kenneth Botts and the program on family relations and communications was given by Mrs. Richard Rice and Mrs. Jay Rice.

Secret pal gifts were acknowledged by Mrs. Harry Eberting, Mrs. F. R. Rice, Mrs. Maude Hensley and Mrs. Roy Marshall.

CALIFORNIA — Mrs. A. K. Reed and Mrs. Luther Garnett were hostesses recently to members of the C.W.F. of the First Christian Church.

Mrs. Leslie Longan, Jr. led the study program, an interesting group participation lesson directed toward understanding and guidance of present day youth. Mrs. Mike Miller prepared an appropriate worship setting in conjunction with the theme, "Hope" for the devotional service.

CALIFORNIA — Mrs. E. M. Bishop, Mrs. Gerald Bruce, Mrs. Kenyon Latham and Mrs. Walter Eitzen, members of the Twin City Garden Club of California, attended the annual District Meeting of the Federated Garden Clubs of Missouri in Columbia. The Twin City Club was awarded a blue ribbon for the 1968 yearbook. Mrs. Arthur Mueller of St. Louis was the guest speaker and presented a program, "Trends and Traditions in Flower Arrangements."

Twenty-four clubs were represented at this meeting.

POWDER LINE

By Judy Nix

It seems mighty strange to me that with all the tremendous technical advances made of late in the auto industry, so far neglected are a few of the more elementary features that any semi-skilled driver knows to be a necessity.

Since October the auto showrooms have become an arena teeming with the magnificent metal beasts in colors of bachelor bronze, roguish russet, and jetaway jade. These automated animals glide, whizz, purr and hug. They all but talk to you.

Their interior appointments surpass the intricacies of the Alexander sarcophagus, and believe it or not, the dash clocks work!

Yet, even crediting this unbelievable advance, a few hang ups remain prominent to the eye of the para-professional driver.

For instance, Detroit has yet to perfect that odd little device that resembles cruise control. A feature of the beasts for several years now, any automobile operator has at least hearsay knowledge of this highlight of the more posh vehicles.

While Hertz endeavors to put you in the driver's seat, this the auto industry's Technified touring device persistently slaps you in the passenger pew, sports you off at wrong intersections, and screeches you obliviously — to say nothing rudely -- past any friends you may meet enroute in the opposite direction.

Though ease of operation remains their theme, manufacturers lose sight of primary needs. The female shopper shall never offer undying gratitude to the Thomas Edison of the station wagon's swinging tail gate. For, in all his earnest, he neglected to install an electric eye shelf that, at its mistress's approach, pops out to provide his laden lady with an unloading spot until she can forge out keys to unlock her up-down, in-out, advanced aperture.

As that indispensable soul, the ultimate consumer, whose satisfied whims alone insure all industry against failure, I petition the big wheels to take note.

The One-Piece Bathroom

NEW YORK (ED) — In the not-too-distanct future, if you want to have another bathroom, you'll be able to zip down to your shopting center and buy one — complete, intact, molded from one piece of plastic. Prefabricated, and pre-wired with all sorts of gadgets, it will be possible to order this room in the morning and have it installed in the afternoon — provided reliability of delivery is better than it is now!

In the future, luxury features will be standard items. Proximity faucets will turn themselves on as your hand approaches and shut off when you withdraw. The tub will be contoured with a head and foot rest, and after you leave it, little electronic brushes will take care of the inevitable rings and things.

The shower will be an experience. On your trusty little computer attachment, you'll be able to dial-a-shower and have it prommersed just to your taste — so many minutes of warm water, a few jets of sauna steam, a needly spray to wake up the circulation, while all the time strategic little jets are sqirting scented soap on you. Warm blowers will take the place of the bathtowel and you'll step out of your shower delightfully fresh and dry.

Cleaning the bathroom of the future will be a breeze. You'll simply seal it, push a cleaning button and hidden jets will hose the whole plastic room down and then start the warm air circulating to dry it off. Until this supersonic bathroom is available, today's homemaker still has to cope with cleaning her current one, and many women have discovered that Handi Wipes, the all-purpose reuseable cloth is a perfect cleaning tool for bathrooms. The soft yet sturdy cloth quickly cleans tubs and sinks and is very effective for washing and shining up bathroom tiles. A rapid rinse out and its's ready to tackle another job like police the medicine cabinet mirror.

When the self-cleaning one-piece, molded bathrooms become a real saleable item in the future, you'll be able to surprise your husband by saying: "Darling, I bought the cutest pair of bathrooms today!"

Richmond Academy at Augusta, Ga., is perhaps the oldest boys' high school in continuous operation in the United States.

Xi Beta Women Will Sponsor Flea Market

Indications are that an array of unusual items will be offered for sale Nov. 15-16 when Xi Beta Upsilon, chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, holds its Holiday Flea Market at the Thompson Hills Mall. Candles, quilts, oil paintings, ceramics, cookbooks, baked goods, and sundry items will be displayed.

Mrs. Sara Melsin, Route 3, Quisenberry Lane, chairman of the project, has stated that the Children's Therapy Center will be the recipient of all profits.

4-H Notes

Officers were installed and plans for the Christmas party made at the Nov. 4 meeting of the South Side County Liners 4-H Club.

New officers are president, Gary Wenig; vice - president, Gale Logan; secretary, Winnie Schnieder; treasurer, Larry Schnieder; reporter, Stan Deickmann; song leader, Marvin Logan; game leaders, Larry gwenig and Lyle Wenig.

Larry Schnieder gave the health presentation and new members, Tammie Westermeier and Carolyn Westermeier were introduced.

The Quisenberry Hustlers viewed slides of Miss Dee Ann Kasak's tour of Denmark at the Nov. 4 club meeting.

Committees were appointed for the fund-raising project and the Christmas party.

New club members are Dianna Knight, Elaine Knight, Beth Holden and Nancy Benton.

RECIPES

Cranberry Sauce, Spices Add Zip to Pot Roast

Pot roast becomes a zesty and even tangy dish when it's cooked with cranberry sauce, horseradish and spices. It's just the entree to serve when you want the family to take notice.

Pilgrim Pot-Roast

- 3 to 4 pound beef arm or blade pot-roast
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 3 tablespoons lard or drippings
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- ¼ cup prepared horseradish
- ½ cup cranberry sauce
- 4 whole cloves
- 1 stick cinnamon
- one-third cup water
- 1 can (16 ounces) whole onions, drained
- 6 to 8 carrots, cut into 2-inch pieces

Combine flour, salt and pepper. Dredge meat in seasoned flour. Brown meat in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Mix horseradish, cranberry sauce, spices and water. Pour mixture around meat. Cover tightly and cook slowly 2 to 2½ hours. Add vegetables and continue cooking 30 minutes or until meat is tender and vegetables are done. Remove meat and vegetables to platter. Thicken gravy if desired. 6 servings.

A Boy's World

This lad's life may never be quite the same once he has owned a sweater like this one shown by Donmoor. Knitted of orlon with a handsome jacquard pattern, the pullover with its matching cap will earn its proud owner high marks on the playground.

Garden Club News

Sedalia Garden Club No. 1 met recently in the home of Mrs. Norman Weheimer with Mrs. E. G. Stumpf as hostess. A dessert luncheon was served to 18 members and a guest and former member, Mrs. L. Anderson.

President, Mrs. Stumpf, was in charge of the meeting during which Mrs. W. O. Wilson reported that a redwood bird feeder and grain will be given to former club member, Mrs. H. Keens.

Mrs. Tracy York, program chairman for the meeting, displayed a lovely arrangement of Evergreens and Pine Cones in keeping with her topic.

Mrs. Oscar DeWolfe and Mrs. M. L. Edwards were hostesses Nov. 8 to members of Garden Club No. 5.

The Christmas Show scheduled for Dec. 6 was the main topic of discussion during the business meeting and Mrs. Thomas Howe was in charge of the program, "Thankful for Many Mums."

"Autumn Splendor" awards went to Mrs. Perry Strole, Mrs. Fred Wertz, and Mrs. Oscar DeWolfe.

Mrs. T. E. Gasperson was hostess to 15 members of Garden Club 6 on Nov. 8.

During the business meeting, members discussed the approaching Christmas show and participated in a memorial service for Mrs. E. B. McNeil.

Mrs. W. T. Sims took first place in exhibits and Mrs. Herman Taylor, first place in horticulture.

Guest Speakers At PTO Meeting

The P.T.O. for State School No. 21 for Retarded Children observed National Education Month by nentertaining the area supervisor, school staff, members and their families with a dinner Nov. 4 at the school. The rooms were gaily decorated with autumn flowers and foliage.

Following the regular business session with Mrs. Raymond Kuykendall, president, in charge, Mrs. Ralph Lee, program chairman introduced George Osborn, area supervisor, and members of the staff.

Students from Mrs. Lee's and Mrs. Cora DeWitt's class presented a program of musical numbers which are used regularly in classroom sessions.

Mr. Osborn spoke briefly to the parents on the progress the students have shown in their work and Charles Repp, of the Boonslick Regional Library presented a program of films to the audience.

An open house tour followed the meeting.

Briefs

The Ladies Aid of St. Paul's Lutheran Church met Nov. 7 at the church for their regular business and social meeting. Mrs. Al Schriener, president, called the meeting to order with 17 members answering roll call.

The group has volunteered their service to Whiteman Air Base during the month of May. Plans were also made for a Christmas Party gift exchange to be held Dec. 5 at the Coffee Pot Cafe.

Mrs. Paul Alpert presented the topic, "God's Community Chest."

Hostesses, Mrs. Fred Albers and Mrs. R. E. Grother served refreshments.

NEW EVENING LOOK

The new look in evening fashion is the floor-length jumper. These jumpers come in wide culotte styles, full-skirt styles, and are sure to attract attention at any evening out.

TO FREEZE EGGS

If your recipe calls for only part of an egg, the rest can easily be frozen for later use. To freeze whites, pour into ice cube trays or muffin tins till frozen, then transfer to a plastic bag. Yolks will coagulate, so you must add either salt (½-teaspoon to six yolks) or sugar (two teaspoons to six yolks), according to use you might make of them later. Mix lightly but try not to mix in air. Freeze in ice cube tray. When using later, one volk equals one tablespoon and one white equals 1½ tablespoons. You can also mix the whole egg lightly before freezing.

Local Restaurant Topic of Feature

The Old Missouri Homestead, Fifth and Lamine, was featured in a recent edition of the Panhandle Magazine a publication of the Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co., which serves this area.

Two full-color photos of the "garden" area, which was once a YMCA swimming pool, along with a description of the entire establishment and a black and white photo of Iva Rice, operator, in the kitchen, took up three pages in the publication.

Youth Appreciation . . .

Encouraging constructive activities of juveniles is one of the outstanding projects of the Sedalia Optimist club which currently is emphasizing Youth Appreciation Week during its 12th anniversary.

Because of the holiday this week, one of the special events will be held next Monday when Sacred Heart and Smith-Cotton High school students will function as city officials.

This is a part of the Optimist club's objective to aid and encourage the development of youth and to give recognition to 95 per cent of those who too often are splattered by the senseless and offensive behavior of the other five per cent.

Today's adults have a responsibility to encourage the vast number of youngsters who will become the honest, stable, solid citizens of tomorrow.

That's what this newspaper endeavors to do every day in conjunction with the Optimist club. News about youth activities is consistently featured in the Democrat-Capital. The idea that newspapers print only the bad things that teen-agers do, and none of the good, is plain nonsense. Such critics just don't read the newspapers thoroughly, or don't remember what they read about 4-H clubs, high school news, honor awards, Little League, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and thousands of related items that appear in their home town newspapers.

Do youths respond to adult guidance? We think so, and so do the Optimists.

This seems to be an appropriate time to mention six tangible factors of family life which a Michigan Supreme Court Judge has observed as most frequently neglected:

1. Love, affection and security for the child in his own home, preferably from his own parents. 2. Full time adult supervision and the teaching of self-control. 3. A family relationship of mutual trust between parent and child. 4. A close sense of family unity, knitting all members together. 5. Conscious parental interest in the education of their children. 6. Setting of a parental example of living in accordance with the principles of the religious faith of the parents.

Youth Appreciation Week, sponsored by the Sedalia Optimists, suggests reflection on these objectives and their possible implementation among those 95 per cent of youngsters many of whom will succeed today's adults as the nation's leaders.

BETTY CANARY

Romance with Nature

I like to think of myself as being among the ranks of the nature lovers. What I mean is, never let it be said that I can't enjoy a sunset as well as the next person. I am prepared to speak long and eloquently about how our wilderness areas must be saved. I have only praise for the Audubon Society and John Muir's people.

Not being one to preach what I refuse to practice, I have consented to taking our children into the woods and, previously, onto the water, so they could get close to the heart of the country.

But, having done my part, now I am going to tell the truth about it. I am never going to write a poem about the twilight call of the cuckoo. (There's a reason he got that name, you know.) Truthfully, all those birds tuning up can send a person smack out of his mind.

Sixteen years of motherhood have accustomed me to having live spiders and other residents of the bug and insect kingdom thrust before my eyes and dropped in my open palm, I have learned to sit calmly at my table and not think about such things as pet snakes and rats dining in my basement.

I am a reasonable person and if anyone happens to develop a burning interest in fungi or wants to spread hunks of decaying vegetation about my kitchen, I'll go along with them. In the recent past, I have even managed to whip up my interest when being told about something with the engaging name of liverwort.

But, even with all this on my side, I still must say that, in my opinion, more nonsense has been written about going back to nature than any other subject. Probably most of it has been composed by an author with a sadistic turn of mind as he sat cozily inside his accoustically treated study.

Do not try to tell me he is writing poetry in an authentic setting—out in the wilds where the twigs crack like M-1 rifles on an autumn evening. He has manufactured all those myths about the stillness of the forest and the sure-footed creatures padding quietly to rendezvous at the water hole. That's what gives him away.

Having been there, I can tell you there is nothing quiet about it. So-called nimble squirrels go suddenly crashing through the trees when you are least expecting it. Deer stumble into the bushes just as you are winking off to sleep. And, always, there are bright-eyed nocturnal beasties lurking along the paths—just daring you to come out of that cabin.

In my dreams, I'm always vacationing on a concrete island. I am surrounded by electric lights—and they are all turned ON.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Russia: Nixon's No. 1 Problem

By DREW PEARSON AND JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — Biggest problem facing Richard Nixon when he becomes president will be relations with the only other nation which has a nuclear stockpile — Soviet Russia.

It is also the nation with the biggest arsenal of missiles — next to ours — the second biggest Navy in the world, and a standing Army bigger than ours.

One week after he became president, Lyndon Johnson decided that if the two most powerful nations in the world — the USA and USSR — could cooperate, there could be world peace.

Since then he has worked hard at this policy, and on the whole it has paid off. The Russians have curbed their plutonium stockpile, lived up to the Test-Ban Treaty, signed a very important non-proliferation pact, signed a consular pact which we wanted more than they, opened a direct airline between Moscow and New York, and expressed their willingness last spring to discuss a limitation of missiles and of anti-ballistic missile networks.

Incidentally, we have found the Russians scrupulous in living up to treaty agreements. Satellite observation is such that our intelligence services have an excellent idea what Soviet missile strength is and what tests are being made. Ever since the Cuban missile crisis, we have found that the Russians have been careful about their statements. In the recent Vietnam truce talks they did not promise too much, but made good on what they did.

Nixon, however, will approach Soviet-American relations with some handicaps. He has urged postponement of Senate action on the vitally important non-proliferation pact. He has said during the recent campaign that he favored going ahead with the $50 billion anti-ballistic missile network; also wants to increase the missile stockpile. This is just the opposite of the Johnson policy.

—Nixon's Kitchen Debate—

Previously Nixon had visited Russia, engaged in the so-called kitchen debate with Nikita Khrushchev which he used in his subsequent election campaign to put Khrushchev in a bad light. The Russians had gone out of their way to give Nixon a rousing welcome, and remember vividly how Nixon turned a gesture of Russian hospitality into a matter of political expediency.

They also remember how he climbed to political power by falsely claiming that such non-Communists as Rep. Jerry Voorhis and Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas of California were pro-Communist. All of this gives the new president a reputation for insincerity and political expedience with the governmnt with which he must now do business if he is to continue the present policy of Soviet-American peacekeeping for the world.

However, the Russians are pragmatic people. They also recognize pragmatism when they see it, and they see it in Mr. Nixon.

Shortly before he was nominated at Miami Beach, he approached the State Department with a view to visiting Moscow. The Russians agreed. This is not hearsay, but fact. Then, following the Czech invasion, Nixon decided it would not be smart politics for him to go to Russia, and the trip was called off.

However, you can be pretty sure the Russians will still talk to Nixon. They'll probably keep their fingers crossed and be more wary than with LBJ whom they had come to trust. But the basic point is that the Russians, even including most of the harliners, believe that future of world peace depends on cooperation between the two superpowers.

They recognize that the United States and the Soviet now have very similar problems, even down to students. In Prague the Czech students have been rioting against Moscow very much as Mexican students were rioting against the United States. The Russians will also deftly remind you — when you criticize their armed invasion of Czechoslovakia — that the United States put 20,000 troops into the tiny Dominican Republic only a short time ago for exactly the same reason the Russians went into Czechoslovakia: Namely refusal to let a foreign ideology get planted in a country very close to one's own.

—Special Session of Senate—

The question of Nixon's cooperation with Russia will first come to a head if President Johnson calls a special session of the Senate to ratify the nuclear non-proliferation Pact was negotiated with great difficulty. While the United States and the Soviet Union had little troule reaching an agreement, they had great trouble with smaller countries.

West Germany, Italy, and Brazil, all good friends and allies of the United States, were extremely reluctant about giving up theri right to nuclear production.

The Soviet also had trouble with some of its allies such as Romania, though Romania in the end signed the pact.

President Johnson feels that time is of the essence. If the United States, which initiated the treaty, does not ratify, we will lose forever the chance to get the approval of the smaller countries. This would lead to a nuclear race in which any little country could blackmail the rest of the world with one bomb.

LBJ is hoping now that Nixon is elected he will change his mind about the pact.

What They Say

LINDA LEFEVERS (404 West 15th) — Last Tuesday I had my first vote, and as I marked my ballots I had the greatest feeling that suddenly I knew I had done my part trying to make our country a better place in which to live. I was proud to stand in that booth and make my choice knowing that sometimes just one vote makes a great deal of difference.

People talk about what a mess the world is in and no one can depend on what's going to happen next, but when each individual can still go and make his own decisions or choices without pressure or someone telling them what they can do or what they can't, then I feel that it's still a country to be very proud of. In my opinion it's by far the greatest country on earth where anyone can have the opportunity of a lifetime if only he takes the trouble to pursue it. And I think by voting this is one of the biggest steps toward our goal. At least its an effort!

In any case, when I finished voting and walked out the door to return to my home, a home of my own, where I can sleep under a safe roof at night and bring up my children in a democracy, I thought to myself — "I'm glad to be an American!!"

Taxpayers Ask IRS

Q — I'm self-employed. If I set up my own retirement plan, is it true I have to do the same for my secretary?

A — Retirement plans for most self-employed individuals must include employees of the self-employed person who have been with him three years or more. Part-time and seasonal employees may be excluded.

Q — From the tax standpoint, what's the difference between alimony and child support payments?

A — Periodic alimony payments are deductible for the payer and taxable income to the recipient. Child support payments are not deductible for the payer and are not taxable to the recipient.

Nixon's Big Bet Pays Off

By BRUCE BIOSSAT, NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)

Republican Richard M. Nixon won the presidency from Vice President Humphrey and George Wallace by a strategy that was almost too cautiously calculated.

He correctly sensed a national mood of unhappiness over crime, racial struggle and campus unrest.

He gauged correctly that if he could get in tune with that mood he might find the winning wave of votes. At the same time, he foresaw that hard-punching George Wallace might siphon off crucial millions of those votes if his ambitious drive were not somehow countered.

Nixon moved to meet the threat first by picking Maryland's Gov. Spiro Agnew as his running mate in the belief many voters troubled by the "law and order" issue would find him acceptable. The GOP presidential nominee also bent his campaign utterances sharply toward that issue.

This really was Nixon's principal bet in the campaign. He decided, long before the last-minute bombing halt, that there would not be too much critical mileage for him in the Vietnam war. The mere fact of continuing peace talks in Paris tended to neutralize the issue and persuade millions of voters that some sort of solution would develop no matter which party held the White House.

Yet the President-elect almost bet too hard on law and order. The dismaying events surrounding the Democratic convention in Chicago plunged Humphrey's fortunes to unnatural depth and exaggerated for awhile the value of the issue.

In the months before his nomination at Miami Beach, few had spoken of Nixon as a prospective landslide winner. He was then expected to have a tough battle no matter who the Democrats chose.

Indeed, the whole protracted argument for New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's nomination was founded on a questioning by some politicians of Nixon's electability.

Suddenly, a week or so after Chicago, he looked like a crusher.

Pollsters had Humphrey nearly off the chart. Electoral vote counters tossed the vice president only a few tiny morsels.

The Nixon high command decided it was on the big tack, that the thing to do was hammer it hard and stay off anything—like campaigning in black ghettos—which might weaken the issue. Toward the end, it was only rarely that Nixon used the word "black" at all.

Up to a point the strategy worked beautifully. The voting results, which gave him five Old South states against the three he took in 1960 and also awarded him the border areas, showed that Wallace at the climax had been met and countered.

Preliminary findings suggest, too, that the strategy blunted Wallace in some rural and suburban territory he threatened to take in northern cities and their hinterlands.

But the wager, as at least one Nixon strategist feared, was too narrow. The memory of Chicago faded. So did Wallace, not just where it would advantage Nixon but among blue-collar workers in cities and suburbs where Humphrey would be the beneficiary.

Humphrey fought back from ground-zero organizationally. He spoke for a bombing halt and then got one, luring previously reluctant Democratic money and manpower. He hit old Democratic economic themes to lure backers of Wallace to their more familiar home.

Potent Democratic habit reasserted itself. And some affluent suburbanites already cool to Nixon's political personality evidently faulted him for the narrowness of his appeal. Pollsters' voter profiles show that many suburban Americans, though anxious for law and order, also strongly favor appeals to and action for the minorities in the core cities.

So big states like California, Illinois, Ohio and New Jersey, which Nixon was figured to win easily, drew tight. Pennsylvania slipped away. By the skin of his hide, no more, his big bet paid off.

"Granted smoking is the cause of all that, but do they know what QUITTING will cause?"

Opening lead—♣ A

An "asking bid" is one that requests your partner to reveal his exact holding in some specific suit. They were first thought of by Ely Culbertson in the early '30s. The game was not ready for them at that time and Ely abandoned this particular brain child.

As bidding methods have improved over the years experts have continued to study these bids. A few actually use them, but for the most part experts have not got around to them as yet.

Today's hand illustrates a real asking bid situation. North responds with two hearts to his partner's opening diamond bid and is surprised to hear a two-spade response. After checking his hearing, he goes into a brown study to find out what to do from then on. Obviously the only card he is interested in is the ace of clubs. How can he ask about it?

When this hand was actually dealt in a friendly International Match Point match between some of America's best young players, each North tried to solve his problem by the use of Blackwood only to elicit a five-diamond response to show one ace. After that each one decided that it was far more likely he would find his partner's ace would be in diamonds than in clubs, and settled for the cinch small slam.

They were correct in their guesses but not satisfied with their results and have decided that if they ever hold this hand again, a jump from two spades to five clubs will be a straight asking bid in clubs. It seems reasonable but we hope that they remember it when they pick up a similar hand five or 10 years from now.

QUICK QUIZ

Q—Why is Pennsylvania nicknamed the "Keystone State"?

A—Because the early inhabitants proudly proclaimed that their state held together the great arch of the United States, extending from Georgia to Maine.

Q—Why are small people called Lilliputians?

A—Lilliput is an imaginary country of Swift's "Gulliver's Travels," whose tiny inhabitants, the Lilliputians, have given their name to anything diminutive.

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Heavy Smoking a Cause Of Buerger's Disease

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q — What is Buerger's disease? Is there any cure?

A — Buerger's disease, or thromboangiitis obliterans, is an inflammation of the arteries in the legs. It is more common in men than in women. Heavy cigarette smoking is an important causative factor. It is serious in that, unless its progress is checked, one or both legs may be lost.

One of the chief symptoms is a severe pain in the legs brought on by walking a short distance. The victim has to rest a few minutes before he can proceed another lap (intermittent claudication).

Several drugs have been tried but none can be recommended. The most important preventive measure is to quit smoking and the best way to improve the circulation is to walk for an hour or more daily, stopping to rest each time the pain occurs.

Special care must be taken to prevent thermal or traumatic injury to the feet. In severe cases, hospitalization is required. Inhalation of oxygen by mask in a chamber under a pressure of 30 pounds per square inch or two atmospheres helps to prevent gangrene. If ulcers or gangrene do occur, various operations can be performed to improve the circulation.

Q — My doctor says I should see a specialist about a lump he can feel in my prostate. I have no symptoms of anything wrong so I feel this would be foolish. What do you think?

A — The graveyard is full of persons who decided for themselves that there was nothing wrong with them. If you have a lump anywhere in your body and your doctor thinks you should have a further examination, you owe it to yourself to follow his advice. If the lump is an innocent one, the specialist will not think you foolish for consulting him. If it is cancerous, the sooner it is removed the better your chance for a cure.

Q — I am 16. All my friends have taken to sniffing airplane glue. What bad effects are they in danger of?

A — It is always a temptation to run with the crowd but this is a sign of weakness rather than strength. In the case of glue, your sniff-happy friends should know that these fumes slowly poison their liver, heart, kidneys, blood-forming organs and nervous system — a high price to pay for their "kicks."

Democrat Pickups

A group of women were at a party at one of the nice eating places in town where they had met several months before.

"I kept debating," said one in a sleeveless dress, "whether to wear this dress or one with sleeves, I didn't remember whether they had air conditioning or not, but I decided they didn't." Then she added, "No wonder they didn't. It was Christmas." H. L.

The family was watching election returns on TV when someone asked eight-year-old Mark what party he was for.

Quick as a flash came the answer: "I'm for a birthday party." H. L.

Ann Landers

Legal Names For Official Purposes

Dear Ann Landers: This may seem like a trivial problem but it is a very serious one. Please tell your reading public that when they admit themselves to the hospital or sign an insurance form or a legal document to please use their legal names and not a nickname or a shortened version of their first names.

I work in a hospital and the confusion and the number of hours wasted because people sign themselves in under nicknames and shortened names is fantastic. Example: Two weeks ago we had an Ann Larson who was really Annette Larson. We also had a woman who signed herself in as Ann Larson although her real name was Anna Maria Larson. Added to that confusion, we had an Ann Larson whose name was Anna Larson. The relatives of these women went nuts trying to find them. Anna Maria Larson's baby was tagged as the son of Ann Larson. This misinformation became part of his birth certificate and it was a mess. Once wrong information appears on a legal document, hours of extra work are required to make a change.

The involvement with medical insurance is another mess. If the name of the patient is not exactly the same as the name on the health policy, it can mean miles of red tape and months of waiting for the money.

So please, Ann Larson, I mean Ann Landers, tell them, will you? — SLAP HAPPY

Dear Happy: You did and I hope they listen.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a widower who has been going with a widow for over a year. I am 52, Nan is 43. My children are married. Hers are in high school.

I want to marry Nan and have told her so. She says she is not ready to give me a definite answer but has promised to do so before the year is out. I am almost certain she will say yes and I am not pressuring her.

The problem: Nan is affectionate when we are alone but in the presence of her family, particularly her children, she is very formal and acts as if we are nothing more than casual acquaintances. She won't even allow me to hold her hand. Isn't this ridiculous for a woman her age? — RESENTFUL

Dear R: No. I think Nan is demonstrating good judgment. Apparently she is not ready to make any announcements, and until she is ready, she wants you to keep your hands to yourself in the presence of her family.

Dear Ann: I am 41. My husband is 44. We have three wonderful children — industrious and respectful. Jim owns his own business and is doing well. We have good health, a pretty home, two cars and all the comforts an upper-middle class family could ask for.

But I am not genuinely happy. I feel restless and unfulfilled. Something is missing from my life. What is it? — MRS. JOYLESS

Dear Mrs.: Trouble. Real trouble. That's what's missing. Stop griping and appreciate what you have while you still have it.

Personal Religion Stressed

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Personal religion, not formal religious services, provides the easiest method for each person to discover how God, "who is personal, is able to relate to them."

This was the message directed to some 160 high school-age students Monday in a religious conference by The Rev. Robert E. Lewis, a New York clergyman. He told them he finds Sunday evening discussions among 10 acquaintances more meaningful than formal services, "even those I lead myself."

Rev. Mr. Lewis, associate director of the Council for Religion in Independent Schools, said he abandoned his Presbyterian pastorate to devote himself to his concept of personal religion.

Sunday school and other formal means of religious instruction may be helpful to some," he told the students, "but at least as many more are turned off."

The students were from one public and four private high schools, including a Catholic school.

Says Starvation Crisis Faces World

FULTON, Mo. (AP) — Thousands of persons are dying of starvation now and mass famine may pit rich nations against poor nations within 10 years, Lord C.P. Snow said Monday night.

Opening the 1968 John Findley Green lecture at Westminster College, Lord Snow spoke to about 1,400 persons.

The British scientist, novelist, essayist and parliamentarian, was scheduled to give the second part of the lecture today.

"Ours is the time of all times when men have performed some of their greatest triumphs," he said. "That ought to make us feel proud to be living at this time and to belong to the same species."

See More 'Engineers' Arriving

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanzania (AP) — Tanzanians are beginning to wonder how many Red Chinese "rail experts" it will take to survey the 1,000-mile route for a railroad between this East African republic and neighboring Zambia.

Twice a month the liner Yaohua brings more Chinese, all designated "engineer-surveyor for the Tanzania-Zambia rail link." So far more than 600 have arrived for a preliminary engineering survey.

If they are what they claim to be, each man will have less than two miles to survey—making the Tan-Zam line the most heavily surveyed railroad in the world. Peking has offered to finance and construct it at an estimated cost of $240 million.

Flying red bunting and the thoughts of Mao Tse-tung on large banners, the Yaohua has become a regular caller at Dar es Salaam. Large groups of Chinese shoppers and sightseers are a common sight, but Tanzanian police and the Chinese togetherness discourage approaches by inquisitive locals.

It is not known whether the "engineer-surveyors" have requested isolation, or whether the Tanzanian government wants it that way. But every time the Yaohua docks, Tanzanian police keep newsmen away, whisk the Reds to their assigned quarters and place a heavy guard around the buildings.

One consignment of Chinese was housed at Dar es Salaam University during the college vacation. Police and plainclothes men patrolled the grounds, keeping the Chinese and unauthorized Tanzanians apart.

POLITICIAN? — Actor Gene Barry, a Democrat, said that he was considering running against U. S. Sen. George Murphy of California when he comes up for re-election in 1970. Barry actively campaigned for the late President John F. Kennedy and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey. (UPI)

S-C Tigers In Last Game Of Season At Springfield

Saturday night the Smith-Cotton varsity Tigers play their last football game of the '68 season when they meet the Springfield Parkview Vikings at Springfield. Game time is 8 p.m.

According to head Tiger coach "Chuck" Shelton, this contest is extremely important to the Bengals as this is their last chance for a 500 season, and if won, will give the Sedalians their best record in recent years.

Shelton states that Parkview is a vastly improved ball club considering the fact that they started the season with nine juniors in their starting lineup, which means that next year they should really be a powerhouse. This season they put things together well in their 26-0 victory over Springfield Central in their last outing. Earlier in the fall, Central lost to the league leader, Springfield Glendale, by the score of 6 to 0.

On the other hand, Shelton indicated that the Tigers have shown some defensive weakness in their last two outings against the Helias Crusaders and Springfield Hillcrest and must get this worked out if they hope to bag a victory Saturday. The Sedalians did triumph over Hillcrest 33 to 27 in a thrilling offensive ground display last Friday night at Jennie Jaynes Stadium.

Shelton further says, "Parkview is throwing the ball a lot and has one of the best running backs by the name of Lopez that we will face. He is big and strong. We can't be mislead by our offensive show of last Friday because we had to have every point we scored in order to win. If we have to have 33 points this Saturday we are in a lot of trouble. We will probably be without the services of Glenn Holmes who sustained an injury against the Hornets. This could be a serious blow both offensively and defensively. We have to do something this week that we have not done for the past two, namely, play tough defense."

The game rates to be a toss up and should prove to be a tough battle for the winner, but anything can happen. For example, the coach of Kansas State was happily surprised last weekend when they (K-State) upset Nebraska resulting in K-State's first conference victory since 1964.

Lincoln, Smithton Teams Win In Kaysinger Games

LINCOLN — The Lincoln Cardinals and Smithton Tigers won convincingly in the Kaysinger Tournament here Tuesday night.

Lincoln used a 22-point outburst in the second quarter of their game with Northwest of Hughesville to rack up a 79-47 victory over the Mustangs.

High point man for the victorious Cards was Eken, with 34 points. McCain lended him a hand with 21. For Hughesville it was Wagner leading the way with 13 points, followed by Shireman with 12 and Bratton with ten tallies.

Smithton's winning effort 78-40 over Stover, was piloted by Hampy, who scored 24 points. Embree and B. Hampy added 12 points each. Stover's Bulldogs were led by Geary with 16 points.

In the volleyball action, LaMonte defeated Smithton 33-24 and Warsaw upended Lincoln 53-10.

Basketball linescores:

Lincoln	20	22	24	13—79

Sacred Heart will go against the top-seeded LaMonte Vikings Wednesday night in a game beginning at 7 p.m. at Lincoln. In a cancellation game, Cole Camp will try its luck against Stover at 9:30 p.m.

Volleyball action will see Stover vs. Green Ridge at 6 p.m. and Northwest vs. Lincoln at 8:30 p.m.

Resigns At Valley

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Skipper Patrick, who retired in 1962 as regional sports editor of the Associated Press, has resigned as information director of the Missouri Valley Conference for health reasons.

Patrick, whose resignation was effective Nov. 1, returned with his wife, Betty, to their home at Learned, Miss., a conference release said.

Hodge Bests Murdock In Hour Time Limit Match

In Tuesday night's main event wrestling at Convention Hall, Danny Hodge bested Tornado Murdock in a best two out of three falls or 60 minute time limit match.

Hodge took the first fall in 13:25 with a reverse shoulder press. Murdock came back to take the second fall with a head drop and press in 5:25, but Hodge won the match in 2 minutes with a reverse shoulder press.

Leading off the night's card was a special event, a one fall or 15-minute time limit match between Terry Martin, 223, and Ronnie Etchison, 238-pound St. Joseph wrestler. The match was called a draw in 9:43 when Martin was injured and Etchison refused to accept the decision.

Kay Noble scored a TKO over Mae Young in an added attraction boxing event, scheduled for four two-minute rounds. It ended in 1:50 seconds of the third round.

The semifinal, a mixed tag match with best two out of three falls or 45-minute limit, went to the team of Kay Noble and Klondike Bill over Mae Young and Frank Marconi.

Young took the first fall in 11:35 as Marconi hit Noble and knocked her down, and Young got a body press. Noble came back to pin Young in 11:50 with a reverse shoulder press. Klondike Bill returned the favor against Marconi in 2:25 seconds with a body drop and press.

In Big Eight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Colorado—For the second week, Buffalo Coach Eddie Crowder will be using 224-pound sophomore defensive tackle Dave Capra at left tackle in place of Dave Perini. Junior Rich Varriano will be in Bill Collins' middle guard spot if the injured regular can't go.

Missouri—Tiger kicker Henry Brown has a muscle tear. Three men will replace him at Oklahoma: Jim Anderson on kickoffs, Rocky Wallace on long field goals, and Bill Sanger on short ones and extra points.

Kansas—Jayhawk Coach Pepper Rodgers said the upcoming K-State club is "as good as we've seen in some positions," and listed split end, flanker, running back, defensive end, quarterback, and punter. The apparent references were to Dave Jones, Mack Herron, Cornelius Davis, Manuel Barrera, Lynn Dickey, and Bob Coble.

Nebraska—Coach Bob Devaney, anticipating Colorado, said Frank Patrick is sharing the top quarterback spot in practice with Ernie Sigler, but that Sigler will probably start. He also is alternating Carl Asuman and Joe Buda at center.

Oklahoma Rolls Up Yardage

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Only Oklahoma's 1956 national championship team rolled up more yardage in the Big Eight Conference than Kansas is amassing this season.

The '56 Sooners—with a backfield of Tommy McDonald, Clendon Thomas, Jimmy Harris and Billy Pricer — averaged 481.7 yards a game in sweeping to 10 straight victories and the national title.

This season, Kansas has averaged 447.6 yards in its first eight games. The Jayhawks lead the league in rushing offense with an average of 301.9 yards a game and are fourth in passing with 145.8 yards a game for their total.

Kansas also leads the conference in scoring this season with an average of 40.1 points a game and conceivably could still match Oklahoma's record pace of 46.6 points per game in 1956. However, the Jayhawks would have to score 145 points against Kansas State and Missouri to accomplish the feat—a not very likely proposition.

Missouri has moved up to the No. 2 offensive position in the Big Eight, averaging 401 yards and 30 points a game.

Oklahoma State remains the passing leader with an average of 180.6 yards through the air per game. The Cowboys are ahead of Missouri's team passing record of 176.2 yards a game, set 17 years ago.

Missouri has taken the top rung in every defensive category, shooting for a sweep such as Nebraska accomplished four years ago. The Tigers have yielded only 9.6 points, 209.6 total yards, 98.6 rushing yards and 111 passing yards per game.

Nebraska is second in each category, having allowed 13.5 points, and 243.1 total yards a game.

Kings Upend Seals

LOS ANGELES (AP) — With Bill Flett scoring two goals and adding an assist and Jim Peters recording one of each Tuesday night, the Kings upended the Seals 3-1 for their fourth straight National Hockey League victory, a team record.

It was the night's only NHL game and moved Los Angeles within a point of the West Division's front-running St. Louis Blues.

After a scoreless first period, Flett took passes from Peters and Doug Robinson and rifled the puck past rookie goalie Chris Worthey at the 3:36 mark.

Top Juvenile Division

NL Bantam Winners

Atom 'B' Champs

Bob Gibson Named Most Valuable

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Gibson, the St. Louis Cardinals' brilliant right-hander, was named the National League's Most Valuable Player today, capping an unprecedented pitchers' sweep of baseball's most coveted prizes.

Gibson, a 22-game winner whose 1.12 earned run average was the lowest in league history, beat out batting champ Pete Rose of Cincinnati in a relatively close contest for MVP honors after capturing the NL Cy Young Award as the unanimous choice of the voting members of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Detroit ace Denny McLain took the American League MVP and Cy Young awards.

In Matsuyama, Japan, where the Cardinals were scheduled to play a local team on their exhibition tour, Gibson said:

"It's great. It's just great, because pitchers don't usually win MVP awards. I've got to thank everyone on the team. The whole team helped me have a good year."

Gibson, who pitched 13 shutouts in leading the Cardinals to their second consecutive pennant, succeeds teammate Orlando Cepeda as the NL MVP.

Cepeda, the only unanimous selection for MVP in National League history, did not receive a single vote this year.

Gibson, 33, a strapping 6-foot-2 veteran of nine seasons with the Cardinals, is the ninth pitcher-MVP since the inception of the award in 1931. Until this year, only Don Newcombe, in 1956, and Sandy Koufax, in 1963, had won both the Cy Young — for pitchers only — and MVP awards.

In the Cy Young voting, Gibson received all 20 first places from the BBWA panel—two writers from each city. He got 14 firsts in the MVP balloting, Rose picking up the other six, and outpointed the hustling Cincinnati outfielder 242-205.

The writers voted for 10 places, with a first worth 14 points, a second, 9 points, a third, 8, and on down to 1 point for 10th.

Rose, who nipped Pittsburgh's Matty Alou for the batting title, .335 to .332, by going 7-for-15 in his last three games, was no lower than fourth on all 20 ballots.

Willie McCovey, San Francisco's slugging first baseman, finished third with 135 points. Curt Flood, the Cardinals' dandy center fielder, was fourth with 116 and Juan Marichal, the Giants' pitching star, was fifth with 93. Gibson, Rose, McCovey and Marichal were the only players among 26 receiving votes who were named on every ballot.

Gibson won 15 straight games during the 1968 season, completed 28 of his 34 starts and finished with a 22-9 record. His 1.12 ERA broke the mark of 1.22 set in 1915 by Grover Cleveland Alexander of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Name Wiesacosky Defense of Week

NEW YORK (AP)—Ed Weisacosky of the Miami Dolphins is The Associated Press' defensive player of the Week in the American Football League.

The Dolphin linebacker was selected for the honor today on the basis of his play in Miami's 21-17 victory over Buffalo Sunday.

The Bills were leading 17-0 when Weisacosky started the Dolphins on the way to the victory by recovering Bob Cappadona's fumble at the Buffalo 41 in the third period.

Sedalia Kickers To Play Central State

The Sedalia Kickers will play Central Missouri State College's soccer squad at Vernon Kennedy Field in Warrensburg Thursday at 7 p.m., announced Paul Klover, circuit director for the Khoury League, Tuesday evening.

John Flannery of Whiteman AFB is manager of the junior kickers, while Scotty Crawford is business director.

Major HOOPLE'S FOOTBALL FORECAST

for games of saturday, november 16

Smooth Sailing

TITANS TO KEEP ON ROLLING; ALABAMA TO COP NIGHT SHOW

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Pigskin Prophet

Egad, friends, the jillions of congratulatory telegrams you showered down on me following my correct forecast—kaff-kaff—of an upset victory for Auburn over Tennessee, were welcome indeed—but they really were not necessary.

Veteran readers of this column will tell you the Hoople System, year-in-and-year-out, has pegged the outstanding upsets each season—har-rumph!

To prove the Tigers' decisive 28-14 thumping of previously unbeaten and fourth-ranked Tennessee was no fluke, watch for the Auburn lads to hand Georgia (6-0-2) its first reverse of the year. I predict an Auburn triumph, 25-17!

The remaining major undefeated clubs—Ohio State, Southern California, Penn State, Yale, Harvard (all 7-0) and Ohio University (8-0)—figure to have clear sailing this Saturday.

The Ohio State-Iowa game will be a free-scoring affair with the Buckeyes finishing in front, 39-33. It will be just the opposite in the Southern California - Oregon State meeting as the Trojans squeeze out an 11-9 win over the Beavers—hak-kaff!

Penn State's Nittany Lions should have an easy time disposing of a below-par Columbia crew. The Hoople System forecasts a Penn State victory, 35-10!

For Yale and Harvard this is the last warm-up before THE GAME on Nov. 23, in which they'll decide who will sit in the Ivy League throne room.

First and Ten!

Yale will run its undefeated string to 16 by whacking Princeton, 27-13. Harvard's Crimson will do Brown up brown — heh - heh — as they score a convincing conquest, 35-17.

The Ohio U. Bobcats will be hard-pressed as they tangle with tough Cincinnati in an intrastate classic. Our calculations give the Bobcats a seven-point edge, 22-15—um-kumph!

Three other contests worthy of special note match Kansas - Kansas State, Alabama-Miami and SMU-Arkansas.

Watch for Kansas to regain its winning ways with a 25-17 victory over the Wildcats at Manhattan, Kansas.

In a nocturnal TV treat, the visiting 'Bama boys will edge Miami, 20-13.

The Southern Methodist-Arkansas fracas will be a thriller all the way with the SMU Mustangs prevailing 27-25—har-rumph!

Now on with the forecast.

Gibson Thanks Team

MATSUYAMA, Japan (AP) — "You're kidding," said Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals when he was informed today he had been named the National League's Most Valuable Player for 1968.

Assured it was no joke, the 33-year-old pitcher paused a few seconds to let the news sink in, then told a telephone interviewer:

"It's great. It's just great because pitchers don't usually win MVP awards."

"I've got to thank everyone on the team. The whole team helped me have a good year."

Gibson, who set a major league earned run average record low of 1.12, is in Japan with the Cards for an 18-game goodwill exhibition tour. He was in Sapporo, Northern Japan, when he was informed Oct. 29 he had won another coveted prize—the Cy Young award.

Matsuyama, on the smallest Japanese main island of Shikoku, is 400 miles southwest of Tokyo. The Cards had the 14th game of their tour scheduled there.

With Gibson when he was informed by The Associated Press he had won the MVP award were first baseman Orlando Cepeda, who won the award last year, and outfielder Lou Brock.

After Cepeda and Brock finished congratulating Gibson, Cepeda turned to Brock and commented, "Now you'll have to win it next year."

Cepeda said Gibson deserved the MVP because he "carried the whole team."

"Gibson should get all the awards that are presented," added Cepeda.

Gibson is the second pitcher to win the Most Valuable Player Award this season. Denny McLain of the Detroit Tigers—Gibson's rival in the World Series—won the MVP Award in the American League.

The last National League pitcher to get the MVP Award was Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1963.

Cardinals' Manager Red Schoendienst and pitching coach Billy Muffett both said the award came as no surprise because of Gibson's performance during the season.

"Bob had a tremendous year," said Schoendienst.

Muffett described Gibson's performance last season as "fantastic." He added, "I hope he will have another good year this coming season."

Vault Notre Dame Into Offense Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — An awesome rout of lowly Pittsburgh has vaulted Notre Dame into the national lead in total offense and a share of the major college scoring lead.

The 550 total yards the Irish rolled up in the 56-7 drubbing last weekend enabled them to unseat Houston as the offensive leader, according to statistics released today by the National Collegiate Sports Service.

Notre Dame is averaging 521.6 yards per game, and Houston 518.6.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Screened Nursery Door Solves Her Cat Problem

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY—When our first baby was born, we had two cats. They posed a problem. I did not want the cats in baby's room but still needed to have the door open so I could hear her, especially at night, and so I could just peek in to see if she was all right. We hit on the idea of a type of screen door. My husband made a frame of narrow strips of wood and attached screening to it, then put on a screen door hook. No more worries about the cats getting into baby's room.—MRS. J. H.

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY—My son in the Navy has so much trouble to keep iron rust off his white uniforms. These must be kept spotless. Does someone know of a sure iron rust-remover? There are many boys on ships at sea who would like this help.—HAZEL

DEAR POLLY—Waxed paper and foil tubes make good storage tubes for large pictures or important papers or documents that you do not want to fold or crease. Just roll the item, slip inside the tube, label the outside with crayon and store in a drawer. Corners stay neat and straight and each open end could be covered with tape for extra protection.—VELMA

DEAR POLLY—Mrs. E. F. M. wanted to know where to store extra table leaves. I want to tell her that I made two braces or racks of one-inch-wide aluminum strips. These are just wide enough to hold the extra leaves. They are shaped to fit around the width of each leaf and fastened to the underside of the table, one for each end of a leaf. I slip my boards in these braces, where they are handy and cannot be seen. (Polly's note—To do this, the table would have to have an "apron" around the edges or the stored leaves could be seen. Exercise great care installing so the screws or nails do not come through to the top.)—MRS. M. M. G.

Denny McLain

NEW YORK—(NEA)—In that jaunty way, Denny McLain, 24, crossed his legs atop the desk in the hotel suite, just as he had done in the St. Louis locker room after getting knocked out in the first game of the World Series.

Then, he wore a sweat-blackened gray T-shirt, unbuckled baseball pants with stripe, shower clogs and that unruffled grin. Now, he wore a baby-blue, frilly-front tuxedo shirt, black tux pants with stripe, black alligator loafers and that unruffled grin. Later that evening he would appear with his quartet on a national television show.

"It's hard for people to imagine me as a serious organist," said the Detroit Tigers' 31-game winner. "They see me pitch and that's all they see. They don't see Denny McLain, the man. But I can understand it. I've seen pictures of myself on the mound, my face all screwed up. Looks pretty damn silly.

Denny McLain

"Then there's that public image of me as a brash smart-aleck. I don't like it, but I'm learning to live with it. Actually, I do like it. It's me. I pop off because there are things I want to say. I don't keep anything inside. You know why? Because I'm not going to die young. I'm going to eat myself up inside. Besides it's publicity.

"I guess I'm a cold person, at least on the outside. Sometimes, anyway. But I stop to give kids autographs, sometimes for half an hour at a time. But there's got to be a limit. Then there are things I do that never get in the papers, that I don't want in the papers. I feel sorry for anyone who is disabled, and I go out of my way to do things for those people. Why not? I'm lucky and I know it. But others aren't so lucky.

"Do you know what I'm really like? This is what I'm like: I let Mickey Mantle hit that ball in Detroit. O.K. I've admitted it to you. I wanted him to hit a homer. It was going to be his last time up in Tiger Stadium. I wanted him to bow out in glory. Why? Because he's been my idol all my life. Because he's an All-American hero type. And because he's done so much for baseball. I'd like to be like him."

McLain sat up and ran his hands through his straight dark blond hair. A World Series ring and an All-Star team ring were on fingers of each hand. His fashionable forelock dropped back on his forehead.

"What has Mantle done for baseball? He's brought out the people. He's made money for baseball. And money is what everyone is mostly interested in. That's what all my friends are interested in. I'm writing a book now. And it'll be a book for people who don't even know a thing about baseball. It'll be about money. Who doesn't care about money? Even the civil rights stuff is about money.

"Talking about Mantle, I think he should have retired last season. The fans didn't think he was embarrassing himself, but some of the players saw it a different way. He just can't move any more.

"But I'm glad the baseball season is over. Now I can do things I want to do—sleep late, play golf, and mostly play the organ more. Baseball is filled with stodgy tradition. And I hate the organized life. For example, why should I go to the park even on days I don't pitch? To run in the outfield? No, because of tradition.

"And talk about stupid things, what about that fourth game in Detroit on Sunday in the rain? That was the worst decision I've ever seen. It was done for the money, for all that television loot. But if McAuliffe or Kaline or Cash would have slipped and got hurt, who could have paid us enough to make it up? No one.

"You know, for the first time in my life I was pressing, in the first two games I pitched in the Series. And the sixth game—I was plain scared. In the first two, I guess I tried to match Bob Gibson with speed. But I'm a finesse pitcher and it was a mistake. The sixth game meant everything to me. The 31 wins for the season meant nothing then. I sat in front of my locker before the game and felt my stomach flop. I had to restore my pride. You know I didn't have to pitch that game. And can you imagine if I had lost?

"Another thing I thought about were my organ dates. They were all signed up for the winter, but I didn't want to play to empty houses."

McLain began playing in lounges four winters ago. Then, he made about $1,000 a week, Last winter, it was up to $3,000. He now pulls down between $10,000 and $15,000 per weekly engagement.

His first album, "Denny McLain at the Hammond," was released before the Series and already has sold nearly 250,000 copies. "It's selling great," he said. "A real successful organ album might sell about 70,000, maybe even 100,000. But then Jimmy Smith or Groove Holmes or Earl Grant aren't pitchers. I'm improving all the time at it. Ray Block said I was great. And that's something. After all, music is his business."

It was mentioned that Mickey Lolich, series star for Detroit, will also be performing, as a singer.

"Everyone wants to be in show business. But hell, I've been doing it for years. So a guy wins three games and immediately he thinks he's Frank Sinatra."

A kidding frown creased McLain's round youthful face. For the second time in a month, Lolich was attempting to upstage him.

College Picks

NEW YORK (AP) — With just two full weekends remaining on the college football schedule, the end is in sight for this panting prognosticator ...

Done in by underdogs ... along with Kansas, Tennessee and Purdue ... last week, we settled for a 46-14 record, which boosted the over-all accuracy mark to .722 (341-117-14).

Here's the view from the bridge on this week's matchups:

Southern California over Oregon State: This one is for all the Roses. Last year it was Oregon State, 3-0, in the Corvallis mud, but the track should be faster for O.J. Simpson at the LA Coliseum.

Ohio State over Iowa: But the unbeaten Buckeyes will have to keep a close watch on Ed Podolak, Iowa's passer-turned-runner who rambled for 286 yards against Northwestern last week.

Oklahoma over Missouri: The Sooners took previously-unbeaten Kansas down a peg in the Big Eight race and they seem solid enough to bag the visiting Tigers.

Georgia over Auburn: Auburn is a proven giant-killer, but we'll go along with Bulldog bruiser Bill Stanfill and his Georgia defensive gang.

Notre Dame over Georgia Tech: Terry Hanratty is through for the year, but his replacement looked like the real McCoy against Pitt.

Miami, Fla. over Alabama: Look for Miami's Ted Hendricks to buck the Tide in his hometown finale.

Arkansas over Southern Methodist: Arkansas' Bill Montgomery gets our nod over the Mustangs' Chuck Hixon.

Ohio University over Cincinnati: The unbeaten Bobcats have the defensive might to handle Cincy pass-master Greg Cook.

EAST—Army over Pittsburgh; Syracuse over Navy; Boston College over Virginia Military; Rutgers over Holy Crosss; Yale over Princeton; Harvard over Brown; Cornell over Dartmouth; Columbia over Pennsylvania.

SOUTH—Penn State over Maryland; Tennessee over Mississippi; Louisiana State over Mississippi State; Kentucky over Florida; North Carolina State over Florida State; Clemson over North Carolina; Virginia Tech over South Carolina; Wake Forest over Duke; Virginia over Tulane; Southern Mississippi over Richmond; North Texas State over Louisville; Memphis State over Wichita State.

MIDWEST — Indiana over Minnesota; Michigan over Wisconsin; Purdue over Michigan State; Illinois over Northwestern; Colorado over Nebraska; Oklahoma State over Iowa State; Kansas over Kansas State.

SOUTHWEST — Texas over Texas Christian; Houston over Idaho; Texas Tech over Baylor; Texas A&M over Rice.

FAR WEST—California over Oregon; Washington over UCLA; Stanford over Pacific; Washington State over San Jose State; Wyoming over Texas-El Paso; Arizona State over Brigham Young; Arizona over Utah; New Mexico State over New Mexico; Air Force over Tulsa.

The 1969 U.S. Women's Open golf championship will be held at Scenic Hills Country Club, Pensacola, Fla., June 26-29.

Name Steve Zabel Lineman of Week

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

"I can't imagine," said Oklahoma Coach Chuck Fairbanks "how a boy could do any more in a game."

You'll have to admit he has an excellent point about Steve Zabel, a rangy end whose supercharged defensive effort keyed the Sooners' surprising 27-23 upset of previously unbeaten Kansas last weekend.

He not only blocked a field goal attempt, thwarted a conversion effort but "our form charts showed he made four tackles, 10 assists and rushed so hard that on six other occasions he forced (Kansas quarterback) Bobby Douglass to throw badly," said Fairbanks.

"And, he played on offense about 30 per cent of the time and made some key catches for us," he added.

And, he also punted for a 38-yard average, with one kick winding up on the Kansas four and three others—48, 49 and 42 yards—taking field position away from the Jayhawks.

What makes The Associated Press' lineman of the week's showing even more remarkable is that it was only Zabel's second game on defense.

Zabel, a 20-year-old, 6-foot-4, 212-pound junior from Thornton, Ohio, had been an offensive end all last season and the first five games this year.

Paul Robinson Takes Over Rushing Lead

NEW YORK (AP)—Paul Robinson, Cincinnati rookie halfback, has taken over the rushing lead in the American Football League.

His 115 yards against Kansas City Sunday ran his total to 705 yards, according to league statistics released today. He holds a nine-yard edge over another rookie, Robert Holmes of Kansas City, while last week's leader, Hewritt Dixon of Oakland, slipped to third with 638.

Len Dawson of Kansas City and John Hadl of San Diego continue their battle for the passing lead. Dawson has completed 81 of 140 attempts for 1,187 yards —an average of 8.48 yards per toss—and seven touchdowns.

Hadl has hit on 127 of 261 tosses, including 18 for touchdowns, for 2,226 yards and an 8.68 average.

New York's Jim Turner, who has booted 25 extra points and 24 of 30 field goal attempts for 97 points, holds only a one-point lead over Jan Stenerud of Kansas City in the scoring race.

George Sauer of New York has caught 50 passes—four more than Lance Alworth of San Diego.

Men Only, Please

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — A golf course for men only is being planned for suburban Minneapolis.

"We won't have to channel our resources on frills like swimming pools, tennis courts and women's tea rooms," a spokesman for the charter stockholders said.

May Scale Down Training Bases

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army appears ready to begin scaling down its huge training bases in the United States as the American buildup in Vietnam nears the 549,500-man ceiling.

The Pentagon acknowledges considering cutbacks in some training centers, but says no decision has been reached.

A reduction in training output will be possible as the Army ceases sending new units to Vietnam and concentrates for the most part on providing replacements for men winding up two and three-year tours.

The Vietnam manpower level, now at approximately 535,000 men, is expected to reach President Johnson's announced ceiling of 549,500 around the end of the year.

The Army Times, an unofficial publication aimed at the soldier audience, reports in its Nov. 13 editions that the Army plans to phase out basic combat training at Ft. Bliss, Tex., and advanced individual training at Ft. Dix, N.J.

The newspaper tied the elimination of basic training at Ft. Bliss to Army plans to cut back its weekly training load from 56 to 53 companies. A company is about 200 men.

The Bliss cutback would go into effect late this month. The phase-out of advanced individual training at Ft. Dix, the Times stated, would come in mid-December.

Dix would continue providing advanced training for guided missile men.

As part of the readjustment of the training complex, the Pentagon only a few days ago designated Ft. Polk, La., a permanent installation.

Officials said the move makes Polk, which dates back to World War II, eligible for some badly needed construction funds.

The Army has been operating 15 training centers to help meet Vietnam war needs.

Since mid-1965, when the big Vietnam buildup began in earnest, the Army has added over a half-million men to its ranks. The war effort requires 50,000 replacements per month.

Say Drugs Were Not Effective

By RALPH DIGHTON
Associated Press Writer

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — A panel of 200 scientists has found scores of drugs tested in a study for the federal Food and Drug Administration "totally ineffective."

The panel called for relabeling of more than 2,000 drugs—two-thirds of those tested so far in the study.

Dr. Robert K. Cannan of the National Academy of Sciences told a group of science writers Monday that revision is necessary because "the labels were misleading and devious."

"They left the impression that a drug could do what it cannot do," he said. "To put it bluntly, there was not a fair representation of the drug in question."

Dr. Cannan reported on a two-year study of drugs placed on the market between 1938 and 1962. The study now is about 87 per cent complete, and there is no reason to suspect that the two-thirds figure will change when the study of 3,600 formulations is finished, he said.

The study, being made by a National Academy of Sciences panel at the FDA's request, covers drugs introduced prior to 1962—about 85 per cent of all those now on the market.

Those introduced since 1962 have been subject to laws requiring that label claims be substantiated.

Dr. Cannan said 6 per cent of the drugs tested so far have been "rated totally ineffective" despite elaborate claims.

The biochemist declined to name brands, saying that was up to the FDA. A full report will be made when the study is completed, probably early next year.

Only a small fraction of the drugs covered in the study can be bought over the counter, Dr. Cannan said. The rest are prescription items.

Leprosy Control Program

By MAUNG MAUNG U

RANGOON, Burma (AP) — The Burmese government has launched a five-year leoprosy eradication scheme to combat not only the disease but the prejudice and social stigma attached to it.

Burma has 200,000 known cases of leprosy in a population of 25 million. Only a small fraction of these are receiving modern scientific treatment at a half-dozen leprosaria run by Christian missionaries.

There are thousands of other hidden cases, unreported and untreated. Lepers in Burma are treated worse than criminals, denied family social life, civic rights and medical facilities for treatment of other maladies.

Many Burmese, who are 85 per cent Buddhist, consider leprosy a divine curse. Consequently lepers try to hide their symptoms until the disease shows up in advanced form, when treatment is likely to be prolonged.

To combat this before it becomes a national problem, the Ministry of Health has budgeted considerable funds for its five-year plan.

In the first two years emphasis will be on organizing and training leprosy survey teams, with survey centers to be opened in Rangoon and Mandalay. At the end of the second year, entire villages in infected areas will be examined and statistics compiled.

In the third year about a million suspected lepers will be examined in Central Burma. In the fourth and fifth years, the work will be reassessed, more survey centers will be opened across the country and, hopefully, all lepers will be receiving treatment.

Throughout the five-year period, the government will try to change public opinion about leprosy, stressing that it is only slightly contagious, curable and caused by germs, not heredity or any divine curse.

Lady Bird Plans Trip

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Associated Press writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lady Bird Johnson will make her final trip around the nation as First Lady later this month "to get reacquainted with the America behind the headlines . . ."

Preliminary plans have the "farewell journey," as it was described by the White House, starting Nov. 22 in Washington at a ceremony for immigrants being sworn in as citizens.

Foreign journalists and other companions will join the First Lady on a four-day 6,000-mile trip to New Orleans; Cape Kennedy, Fla.; Denver, Colo., and then to Eureka, Calif., for dedication of the Redwood National Park.

"It will be a wonderful way to get reacquainted with the America behind the headlines—and to introduce some foreign friends to our country," said Mrs. Johnson in a statement today.

The First Lady, a vigorous supporter of national beautification projects, has made about 40 trips during her five years in the White House, covering 100,000 miles and 125 cities and towns.

At this trip's first stop—New Orleans—Mrs. Johnson will attend the opening of a repertory theater and visit Xavier University of Louisiana, a participant in the Teacher Corps program.

She and her party will then meet with astronauts in Cape Kennedy.

She's to dedicate a new neighborhood health center in Denver and visit an existing center. She'll attend a premiere of an Office of Economic Opportunity firm describing new federal health programs.

The Denver visit will also include a stop at Larrimer's Square, which the White House calls an outstanding example of private community renewal.

The trip will wind up with a full day in Redwood National Park, a 58,000-acre preserve created by the 90th Congress.

Soup's On

Fire Captain Richard Vic of the City of Commerce fire department, a suburb of Los Angeles, opens and tests a hot can of chicken soup at the Heinz warehouse after fire broke out about lunch time. The fire caused enough heat to warm up cans but caused no major damage or injuries.

People In The News

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Folksinger Joan Baez sported a new, short haircut Tuesday and a new opinion of campus demonstrations. They are "downright silly" and "irrelevant," she said.

Miss Baez, 27, who took part from time to time in the University of California at Berkeley student rebellion in 1964 although not a student there, told a news conference that there "might be a time or a reason for campus demonstrations, but I haven't seen it yet.

"If you're going to do anything really revolutionary, you're going to have to leave the campus."

CANEEL BAY, St. John, V.I. (AP) — Vic President Hubert H. Humphrey went sailing Tuesday aboard the 883-foot schooner Panda, which is visiting here from her home port of British Antigua.

The vice president arrived for a 10-day vacation Friday aboard an Air Force Convair accompanied by his running mate in last week's election, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine, and their families.

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — Vice President-elect Spiro T. Agnew flew to Puerto Rico in a U.S. Air Force plane to forestall any hijack attempt to Cuba, it was disclosed Tuesday.

Thirteen American commercial airliners have been forcibly diverted to Havana this year—the most recent on Nov. 4.

So Agnew, his family and attendants were assigned a twin-engine Air Force Convair 580 for the flight of nearly 2,000 miles from Baltimore via Patrick Air Force Base, Fla., to San Juan Monday.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The excommunication of John Leahy, 40, a former priest who married a widow with five children has been lifted by the Vatican, the San Diego Roman Catholic archdiocese said Tuesday.

A diocesan spokesman said Leahy was returned to good standing in the Church.

Leahy now is a counselor in the San Diego school system. He formerly was a priest in suburban Chula Vista and before that suprintendent of Catholic schools in Atlanta, Ga.

Leahy and Marie Dolores Veling, 39, were married in August 1967 in a civil ceremony.

DETROIT (AP) — Rep. Melvin R. Laird, R-Wis., received the 1968 presidential citation of the American Public Health Association during the annual meeting Tuesday as a major supporter of public and private medical research.

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II Tuesday presented a wreath at the monument to Bernado O'Higgins, the father of Chile's independence.

O'Higgins died in 1842. His Irish-born father, Ambrosio O'Higgins, had been governor of Chile under the Spanish crown.

Thousands lined downtown streets to get a glimpse of the British queen and her husband, Prince Philip, as the royal couple proceeded in a horse-drawn carriage.

CHICAGO (AP) — Actress Zsa Zsa Gabor was dismissed Tuesday as a defendant in a $1 million damage suit stemming from her reference to Leo Durocher, Chicago Cubs baseball team manager, in a TV commercial.

Miss Gabor used Durocher's name in commercials she made for Aamco Transmissions, Inc., allegedly in violation of Durocher's contract with the company.

Her lawyer's motion for dismissal stated that she was completely idemnified by Aamco and its wholly owned subsidiary, Bell Advertising, Inc., for all claims, damages and liabilities.

Thomas Jefferson once owned Virginia's Natural Bridge.

Vital Time Is Bought By 'Banks'

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Storage of vital body parts is buying time and hope for potential organ transplant patients, putting them within reach of the life-saving surgery no matter where they are.

A few hours, sometimes just minutes, often means the difference between success and failure in transplantation.

Each second's delay in restoring blood and oxygen to a donor heart or liver or kidney means a smaller chance of success.

In specific terms, this means that people like Eddie Miller, 45, a construction worker from West Helena, Ark., had time to get to Denver for a liver transplant when a donor organ became available. His own liver was destroyed by cancer.

He is among seven survivors of liver transplants in Denver, including a 3-year-old northern California girl who underwent the operation Monday.

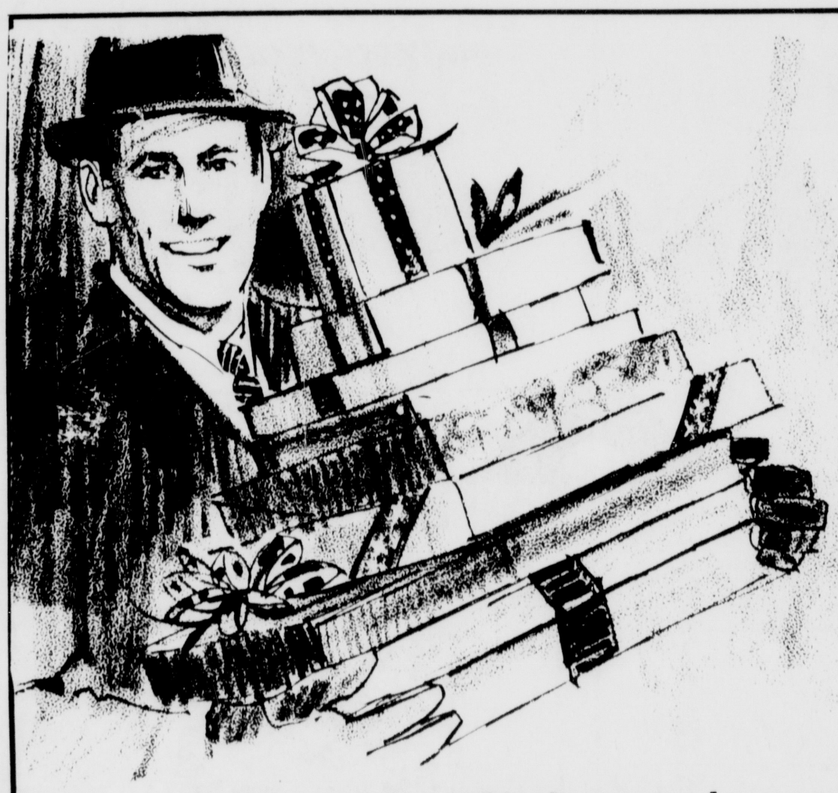

Others have been flown here on short notice for kidney or liver transplants from homes as far distant as Florida and New York and Honolulu.

Dozens of others, from all parts of the nation, are on a waiting list for kidney and liver transplant here. Perhaps 75 persons are in line for heart transplants here and in such centers as Houston, Tex.; Palo Alto, Calif., and Richmond, Va.

Heart-lung machines have been used to keep a heart going and the lungs breathing after the donor patient has died, while the recipient is prepared for the transplant.

Dr. Lawrence Brettschneider and other surgeonss here developed a low temperature, oxygen pressurized chamber to store livers for several hours.

Dr. F. O. Belzer of the University of California devised a similar machine which has stored kidneys up to 17 hours before successful implantation.

Formula to Stop Drug Use

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
AP Science Writer

DETROIT (AP) — Some 30 times, the young man went on "trips" with LSD.

Then, abruptly, he quit taking the mind-influencing drug that can launch hallucinatory voyages into realms of fantasies, pleasant or terrifying.

He studied, earned a doctorate, and now is an assistant professor of psychology.

From personal experience, from interviews with students who are present or former users of psychoactive drugs, Dr. Allan Y. Cohen offered today some ob servations about how to induce people to stop using such drugs, or to prevent their starting out on the mind-drug road in the first place.

Dr. Cohen, 29, now at John F. Kennedy University in Martinez, Calif., addressed a session of the American Public Health Association.

He had, he said in an interview, been until a few years ago a disciple of Dr. Timothy Leary, a champion of LSD, but turned away because he felt drugs were not the answer, were "a waste of time."

Dr. Cohen, a frequent speaker on college campuses, said "curiosity, social pressure, rebellion against authority, escape from social and emotional problems, desire for 'kicks'—all these are more or less relevent in many cases (of drug use), but add little to our capacity to understand the recency and magnitude of contemporary drug abuse."

A "listening ear" finds also a "theme of disenchantment and alientation," he said.

Elements in this disenchantment include some experience of futility, a "charge of social and political hypocrisy reflecting governmental and social policy which seems headed toward more war, hate and injustice," criticism of parents on grounds of "basic lack of understanding and discrimination toward what is really important," and the search to learn, "Who am I?"

To induce drug-users to give them up, Dr. Cohen suggested in part:

A sympathetic attitude—more emphasis on public health rather than legal approaches—stress on reasons behind the use of drugs themselves rather than on the drug themselves—more availability of objective information about drugs—more use of former drug users as communicators—giving greater responsibility to young people in political and social policy planning so that they don't feel like outsiders.

Young people need to be given alternative choices that could reduce a desire for drugs, Dr. Cohen said.

Curing all the ills of society might do it, but more practically, "the fact is that young people will cease using drugs if they are provided with some better nonchemical technique" in their "search for meaningful interpersonal relationships, enduring values, and inner experience."

"If alternatives are initiated in the earlier grade levels, we shall have gone a long way in the prevention of drug abuse. Casual experimentation provoked by curiosity may still continue, but habitutation will be unappealing and even unfashionable.

"It's not very difficult for the user of cannabis (marijuana) or LSD to stop if he wants to stop. The critical issue is to get him to want to stop. This comes automatically when he finds a meaningful nonchemical alternative."

Found the Balloons

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — Note to Tommy Klaff, Lori Wilder and Brian Cooper in Baltimore, Md.:

Your balloons landed in Worcester, Mass.

Mrs. Grace Reidy reported Monday that five balloons apparently sent aloft by pupils of the Ft. Garrison Elementary School in Baltimore, landed in a maple tree in her front yard Wednesday. They were extricated Monday.

WHY WE CAN SELL FOR LESS!

- We buy direct from the assembly line from 11 factories. (This eliminates jobbers and distributors.)
- We are a warehouse operation! (Our building is not fancy—Low overhead!)
- We do not have free parking—But, handy parking available!
- We operate with a minimum number of employees. (yet, it would be worth it to you if you had to wait 30 minutes to be assisted. We can save you $25.00 on a $75.00 purchase.)
- We operate on a volume basis. (We are satisfied with less profit per sale.)
- We buy in large volume and get maximum factory discounts—AND PASS THE SAVINGS ON TO YOU!!!

Sylvania Dynamic America Collection

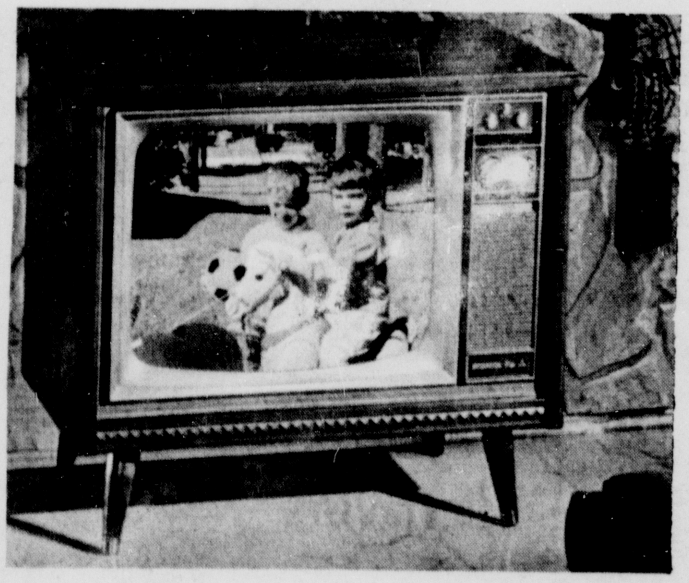

CLASSIC SC228BT. Classicism is elegantly expressed in the purity and symmetry displayed by the dramatic panels of swirling Myrtle burls accented with brass rings. Cabinet of Oak veneers and select solids. Decorative trim of non-wood material.

height 27 1 16" width 45 7 8" depth 18 21 32"

EARLY AMERICAN SC224K. Inviting as a colonial kitchen, this beautifully proportioned console features miter joined bracket feet and deeply carved front base. Ornate brass pulls addcharm to this "Fireglow" Maple veneer and select solids cabinet. Decorative trim of non-wood material. height 27 1 16" width 46" depth 18 13 16"

CONTEMPORARY CF 511W

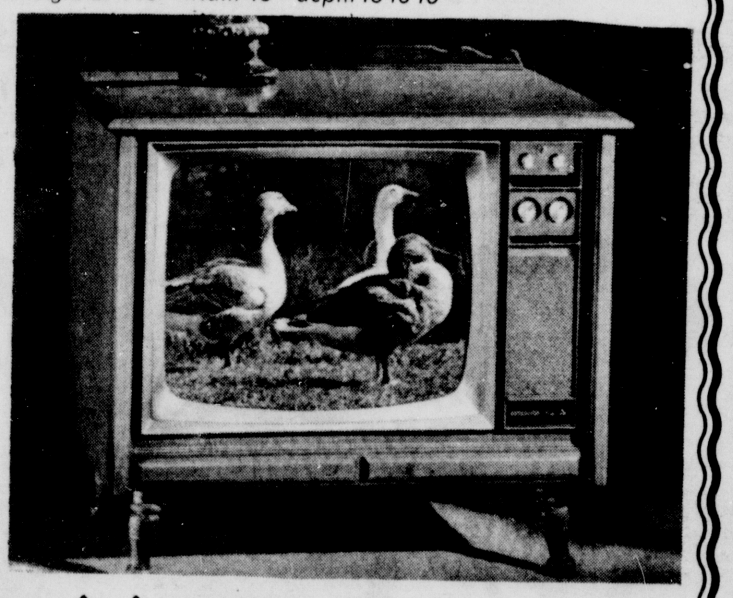

An elegant flair for contemporary furnishings is demonstrated with this fine Color TV design. Carved "dentil" detail of the base rail adds appealing contrast to the crisp straight lines of the cabinet and generous overhang top. •Oiled "Cliffhouse" Walnut veneers and select hardwood solids.

height 30 1 8 Width 34" depth 19"

EARLY AMERICAN CF512K

"Fireglow" Maples and select solids are employed by Sylvania's skilled craftsmen to create this hearty Americana design. Deeply spooled legs and scalloped gallery are authentic period motifs.
